• Recognizes the impact of the historical development of civil rights and diversity in the United States.
• Differentiates between representational diversity, inclusion, diversity climate, and employee engagement
2 - Organizational Awareness

- Understands the mission and functions of one’s own organization, and how diversity connects to the mission
- Comprehends the regulatory requirements of EEO/EO and distinguishes both the differences and linkages with diversity
- Operates effectively within the organization by applying knowledge of how the organization’s programs, policies, procedures, rules, and regulations may either enhance or create barriers for representational diversity and inclusion
3 - Cultural Perspective-Taking

- Demonstrates an awareness of one’s own cultural assumptions, values, preferences, and biases, and understands how one’s own identity group is viewed by members of other identity groups
- Applies perspective-taking skills to detect, analyze, and consider the point of view of others and recognizes how the other will interpret his/her actions
- Understands the formation of social identity, privilege, and bias structures, and can identify when they may be at play in organizational processes
- Analyzes the cultural context when interpreting environmental cues
• Recognizes and manages both verbal and non-verbal cues about personal attitudes toward diversity in general and racial, ethnic, and gender groups specifically
• Distinguishes the impact of racial, ethnic, and gender culture on communication behaviors, and can identify when they may create conflict or misunderstanding among work groups
• Listens carefully to others, paying close attention to the speaker’s point of view
• Communicates thoughts and ideas in a way that is relevant to the listener
• Adjusts communication style to meet expectations of audience
• Seeks additional clarifying information when necessary
5 - Interpersonal Skills

• Develops and maintains positive rapport by showing respect, courtesy, and tact with others
• Interacts effectively with a variety of people
• Relates and adjusts well to people from varied backgrounds in different situations
• Engages in self-management when personal biases are activated or present
6 - Cultural Adaptability

• Understands the implications of one’s actions and adjusts approach to maintain positive and bias free relationships with individuals or groups of other racial, ethnic, or gender cultures

• Gathers and interprets information about people and surroundings to increase awareness about how to interact with others

• Integrates well into situations in which people have different values, customs, and cultures

• Shows respect for others’ values and customs
7- Leading Others

• Creates an inclusive environment
• Takes a multicultural versus colorblind approach when interacting with others
• Sets, communicates, and maintains standards for all
• Seeks and accepts feedback on diversity-related issues
• Creates focus on super-ordinate identity (team) and task
• Recognizes the diversity issues present in cross-dyad mentoring
• Focuses on performance results, not performance style
• Ensures decisions and behaviors reflect fairness
• Develops direct reports and fosters talent throughout organization
