Research Memorandum 65-4

OPERATING UNDER CONTRACT WITH THE
DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
NOTICE: When government or other drawings, specifications or other data are used for any purpose other than in connection with a definitely related government procurement operation, the U. S. Government thereby incurs no responsibility, nor any obligation whatsoever; and the fact that the Government may have formulated, furnished, or in any way supplied the said drawings, specifications, or other data is not to be regarded by implication or otherwise as in any manner licensing the holder or any other person or corporation, or conveying any rights or permission to manufacture, use or sell any patented invention that may in any way be related thereto.
Reproduction in whole or in part is permitted for any purpose of the United States Government.

Social Science Research on military problems is performed in support of requirements stated by the Department of the Army staff agencies and other Army elements. The research is accomplished at The American University by the Special Operations Research Office, a non-governmental agency operating under contract with the Department of the Army.

The contents of SORO publications, including any conclusions or recommendations, represent the views of SORO and should not be considered as having official Department of the Army approval, either expressed or implied.

Comments are invited and should be addressed to:

Strategy

18. Sewall, John K. "Vietnam 'Chieu Ho' Program Offers Way Home for Returnees," FRONT LINES, 11 (Oct 30, 1964), 1, 11. AID. An AID Information Officer discusses the "open arms" policy directed to defecting Viet Cong and appraises the effectiveness of this enticement strategy which is based on the Philippine experience of 1946-54.
10. "Viet Cong Step Up Guerrilla Warfare," COMMUNIST AFFAIRS, 2 (Sept-Oct, 1964), 11-12. The strategy used by the Viet Cong is increasingly psychological rather than military. This article spells out the lessons to be learned from the psychological victory won by the VC attack on Bien Hoa Airbase, Nov 1964.
