666 WORLD BATTLES REVISITED;
A BIBLIOGRAPHY OF PERIODICAL ARTICLES
BY LESTER L. MILLER, JR.
JANUARY, 1978
FOREWORD

This bibliography covers various world battles dating from 1479 B.C. through the Vietnam War as written about in fifty-seven periodicals. Arrangement is alphabetical followed by the generic association with which a given battle is historically recorded. These include terms with which a given battle is associated. These include nouns such as battle, campaign, capitulation, massacre, occupation, operation, raid, revolution, siege, and skirmish.

Due to time and space constraints only one article for any given battle has been cited. Materials listed have been selected from periodical holdings of the Morris Swett Library.

Inclusion of an item or omission does not imply USAFAS endorsement or sanction of the compiler's point-of-view nor does it guarantee accuracy of content. Comment and criticism concerning this list is solicited.

LESTER L. MILLER, JR.
Reference Librarian

"Unfortunately, war cannot be prevented without risk to those who would combat aggression. However, the danger of war through an incident is far more remote than the danger of war might be if we were to sit passively by and let events take their course."

"The battle may therefore be regarded as war concentrated, as the center of effort of the whole war or campaign. As the sun's rays unite in the focus of a concave mirror in a perfect image...so the forces and circumstances of war unite in a focus in the great battle for one concentrated utmost effort."

Clausewitz
