VRPR DELEGATE SPEAKS AT LATIN AMERICAN MEETING IN PRAGUE

SK180615 (Clandestine) Voice of the Revolutionary Party for Reunification in Korean to South Korea 0300 GMT 17 Jul 83

[Speech by the unidentified RPR representative who participated in the World Peace Congress in Prague at a meeting of solidarity with the masses of Latin America held on 25 June—read by announcer]

[Excerpts] Respected ladies and gentlemen: We, a delegation of the RPR, feel very glad to meet you who are fanning the flames of the anti-U.S. struggle in Latin America.

I, first of all, express deep thanks to many friends for supporting the South Korean masses's struggle. There is no one who is more precious and welcome for us than those who condemn and denounce the U.S. imperialists and the fascist Chon Tu-hwan military clique and support and encourage the fighting South Korean masses.

Condemning and indicting the crimes of the U.S. imperialists and the Chon Tu-hwan ring at this significant meeting are the unanimous wishes of the South Korean masses aspiring for independence, democracy and reunification.

As you know, the U.S. imperialists occupied our territory and have continuously forced a heart breaking tragedy—the bifurcation of the nation—to maintain the colonial, fascist rule. The 38 years since the U.S. imperialists occupied South Korea have been days of crimes during which they have strangled out masses independent and democratic demands and aspirations, have soaked our land with blood, have blocked our nation's will for reunification with bayonets, and have forced North-South confrontation and war.

Having proclaimed the Korean peninsula to be a test ground for a showdown in the 1980's, the bellicose Reagan regime is scheming to deploy medium-range missiles, cruise missiles, and even neutron bombs in South Korea. The U.S. warmaniacs are unhesitatingly talking about the use of nuclear weapons on the Korean peninsula. Team Spirit '83, known as the largest-scale preliminary nuclear war, confirmed that the U.S. imperialists' sinister plot for a nuclear war had reached an extremely reckless stage.
U.S. imperialism is the most outrageous ringleader of aggression and war, the stronghold of a modern colonialism, and a heinous enemy trying to plunge our nation and mankind into the calamities of nuclear war.

The U.S. imperialists aggressors must unconditionally and immediately withdraw from South Korea, taking along nuclear weapons and other war equipment.

Our party is struggling, adopting as the most lofty duties eradicating the U.S. imperialists' occupation of South Korea and their colonial rule, making the South Korean society independent, terminating the tragedy of national division, and establishing a reunified and independent state on the Korean peninsula.

Unless it gets rid of the Yankee aggressors' colonial, fascist rule and achieve self-reliance and independence and unless it provides a prosperous reunified fatherland for the South Korean masses, it cannot say that it will have fulfilled its heavy duties before history and the nation.

Our delegation came here to expedite our masses' anti-U.S. movement for independence and reunification amid international support and solidarity. I firmly believe that the movement of solidarity supporting independent and peaceful reunification on the Korean peninsula will contribute to more greatly encouraging our party and masses, who are fighting to terminate the U.S. imperialists' occupation of South Korea and their colonial rule and to open a decisive phase for national reunification, and will contribute to creating international circumstances in favor of our struggle.

To realize the independent and peaceful reunification of the Korean peninsula, the Democratic Confederal Republic of Koryo [DCRK] set forth by the great sun of our nation Comrade Kim Il-song should be established. This proposal is a confederal-type reunification overture for founding an independent, democratic, neutral, peace-loving, reunified national government and for enforcing a local autonomy system in the North and the South on the basis of mutually recognizing the ideologies and systems existing in the North and the South. Our RPR and South Korean masses ardently support the proposal for founding the DCRK, based on the three principles of independence, peaceful reunification, and great national unity, as the most just, fair, and realistic formula for peaceful reunification.

The South Korean masses' anti-U.S. struggle for independence and antifascist struggle for democratization is ultimately aimed at reunifying the fatherland in accordance with the proposal for founding the DCRK.

Our masses, who are fighting amid international support and encouragement, upholding the anti-U.S. banner for independence and dreaming for the day of reunification, will certainly win victory.

Ladies and gentlemen, the South Korean masses and the Latin American masses are close friends fighting in the same ranks of the anti-U.S. front. We strongly denounce the U.S. imperialists' aggression against and interference in countries of Latin America and, in particular, of Central America and the Caribbean region and send firm solidarity to the struggle of the Latin American masses for self-reliance, independece, and the construction of a new society.

In conclusion, I hope that, in the future, too, as in the past, you and the Latin American masses will actively support and encourage the South Korean masses' anti-U.S. movement for independence and their struggle for the reunification of the fatherland. Thank you very much.

VRPR ON S. KOREAN MASSES OPPOSING IPU CONFERENCE

SK190228 (Clandestine) Voice of the Revolutionary Party for Reunification in Korean to South Korea 1000 GMT 18 Jul 83

[Text] The masses of all walks of life are condemning the Chon Tu-hwan ring for maneuvering to hold the 70th IPU conference in Seoul.

Worker Kim Song-min said: The convocation of the IPU conference in Seoul is not just. Seoul is not a proper place to hold such a dignified international conference. Even though the United States has conducted propaganda on South Korea being an independent state, public opinion acknowledges that South Korea is a colony subordinate to the United States. The South Korean Government is a puppet organ fabricated by the United States, and its National Assembly is the murderous dictator Chon Tu-hwan's servant who does not represent the will of the people. Our workers, opposing the domination of South Korea by the United States and the fascist Chon Tu-hwan's dictatorship, could never welcome the Seoul IPU conference. We resolutely reject the convocation of the Seoul IPU conference as running counter to the will of the workers.

Student Yim Hui-song said: We know the IPU as a dignified international organ of the houses of the independent states. This notwithstanding, the holding of the 70th conference of the union in Seoul is a surprising event. The inducement of the IPU conference into Seoul must have followed the political intrigues of the United States and Chon Tu-hwan. Their intrigues are aimed at obtaining international recognition of the fascist Chon Tu-hwan dictatorship—the object of our struggle—as a legitimate government in South Korea and at justifying the two-Korean policy of the United States, which seeks to perpetuate national division. Because the aims of the convocation of the IPU conference in Seoul are obvious, we will never tolerate its convocation in Seoul.

Reporter Choe Yong-kon said: It is the South Korean people who will be subjected to losses by the convocation of the IPU conference in Seoul. The Chon Tu-hwan ring is desperately running amok to hold the IPU conference in Seoul at any cost. To create circumstances, the ring is mapping out measures to strangle the people. The convocation of the IPU conference in Seoul will bring grave consequences, thus leaving a stain on the history of the IPU. Because the consequences of the Seoul IPU conference will be very grave, our South Korean people resolutely oppose its convocation. By looking straight at the grave nature of the situation, the houses of each country should change the venue of the 70th conference of the union to a proper country. This would be a wise decision.

ROK DAILY ON 'WEAK-KNEED' ROK DIPLOMACY

SK151246 Seoul TONG-A ILBO in Korean 15 Jul 83 p 2

[Article from the column "Tidbits"]

[Text] Yi Ki-chu, political councillor at the South Korean Embassy in Japan, said that, while visiting Japanese Foreign Minister Shintaro Abe on 14 July, South Korean Ambassador to Japan Choe Kyong-nok called for Japanese political measures on recent contacts between Japan and North Korea. Yi said that, to this, Japanese Foreign Minister Abe said that there is no change as far as Japan's policy towards North Korea is concerned.

On 15 July, Japanese dailies reported that, declaring that the Japanese Government, interested in the revival of the Japan-North Korea fisheries agreement, will take certain action in this regard and that Japan will continue to expand personnel exchanges with North Korea, Japanese Foreign Minister Abe asked his South Korean counterpart to understand this.

This report, hinting at Japan's attitude toward North Korea, contradicts remarks made by an official at the South Korean Embassy in Tokyo. This makes people suspicious of those officials implementing our foreign policy on Japan, who are reputed to have become weak-kneed.

Japanese dailies reported that Ambassador Choe told Japanese Foreign Minister Abe that, while Red China has recently refused to allow South Korean delegations to enter the Chinese territory to participate in meetings of UN agencies, Japan allowed North Korean delegations to enter the Japanese territory to participate in a meeting of the Asia-African law advisory committee, which was held in May, thus breaking a balance.

VRPR ASSAILS CHON'S FAMILY SEARCH CAMPAIGN

SK180138 (Clandestine) Voice of the Revolutionary Party for Reunification in Korean to South Korea 1000 GMT 16 Jul 83

[Radio Drama from program "Echo of Public Sentiment"]

[Text] [First unidentified announcer] Can I raise a question? What does the term "displaced family" mean?

[Second unidentified announcer] It means separated and scattered family. The term indicates family members who were scattered during the war.

[First announcer] By the way, why are they suddenly coming up with the issue of displaced families today, 30 years after the truce? I could understand the question of separated families between the North and the South if reunification were achieved.

[Second announcer] Hush! They are playing a farce. Those next to us are laughing at us.

[First announcer] I know. The authorities are staging too clumsy a drama. [music interposed]

[First unidentified moderator] Now, shall we watch in what method the family search campaign is being hatched behind the scenes?

[Second unidentified moderator] Now, we will carry a ridiculous comedy. [music interposed]

[Unidentified actor] How are you, Mrs [word indistinct]? How glad are you to meet your uncle?

[Actor] I saw your reunion with your uncle on TV.

[Actor] Did you say you met him 30 years after separation?

[Actor] Then, 31 years?

[Actress] No.

[Actor] How long have you been separated from him? 33 years?

[Actress] No.

[Actor] How long?

[Actress] I just met him.

[Actor] I mean when were you separated from your uncle?

[Actress] I met him after 5 days of separation.

[Actor] What are you talking about?

[Actress] I met him on 1 July and saw him again on 6 July at the TV station.

[Actor] Are you crazy? On that day, an announcer said you enjoyed the joy of reunion after 30 years of separation.

[Actress] That was not a reunion. I frequently see him.

[Actor] What?

[Actress] I met my uncle not on 6 July, but 30 years ago. He lives in Pusan. I meet him at least 10 times a year. On 1 July, he came up to Seoul on business and dropped by my house.

[Actor] What does the pleasure of reunion after 30 years of separation mean?

[Actress] That is a lie.

[Actor] A lie?

[Actress] That is a drama written by the authorities. They ordered me to pretend as if I were meeting him for the first time in 30 years. At first, I refused their order. Then, they threatened me, saying that I would be in trouble if I would not follow their order. They even coached me on how I should act when I met my uncle at the station.

[Actor] Oh, no! That is the true nature of the family search campaign.

[First moderator] This is the true color of the family search campaign.

[Second moderator] Do you know why they are staging such a farce?
[First moderator] The reason is so obvious. The authorities do not seek to relieve displaced families' pain.

[Second moderator] You are too correct. The family search campaign is aimed at anticommunism and anti-North, thus seeking the security of power and the extension of their holding of power by inciting the consciousness of North-South confrontation and by fabricating two Koreas. In addition, through the campaign, the authorities are trying to embellish their crimes and mislead public opinion with the inducement of the IPU conference in Seoul as an opportunity.

[First moderator] Now, will you hear the gibberish of the treacherous Chon Tu-hwan group which has revealed the true purpose of the so-called family search campaign?

[Second moderator] Chon Tu-hwan babbled that the theater at which separated families meet should serve as the best stage for anticommunist education.

[First moderator] The minister of education said that he planned to adopt the family search campaign as a movement for anticommunist education.

[Second moderator] Do not make a bad use of the sufferings of displaced family members!

[First moderator] Separated families are flying into a rage. Immediately renounce the clumsy political intrigue!

[First and second moderator] These are today's echoes of public sentiment.

DAILY WARNS AGAINST EXTENDING PRESIDENTIAL TERM

SK170940 Seoul CHUNGANG ILBO in Korean 16 Jul 83 p 2

[Editorial: "The Dignity of the Constitution"]

[Text] We are observing the 35th Constitution Day. On 17 July 1948, our country established and promulgated a Constitution, founded on the underlying ideology of freedom and democracy, thereby parting with absolute monarchy that had ruled our country for thousands of years and coming to possess for the first time in history the basic framework of a modern state.

We recall with deep emotion the time when we launched the new republic based on a Constitution which declared that the Republic of Korea is a democratic republic, though the country was divided.

However, as all the nation is well aware, the constitutional history of no more than 35 years has been subjected to trials and thickets, and has been covered with wounds. During this time, our Constitution has been subjected to suspensions and revisions no less than eight times.

Such sufferings and meanderings which the Constitution has been exposed to—the Constitution which is the basic law of the state and the supreme positive law—resulted from excessive fondness for power by those in power, yet they also show, at the same time, the many problems and agonies of the new-born Republic of Korea.

Democracy originated and developed in Europe and was new to us. Undeniably, the major reason for the sufferings of our Constitution is that we were not trained as democratic citizens and were unprepared to smoothly digest the impact of democracy that abruptly came upon us.

If the citizens had had firm faith in democracy and had been more active in securing their own rights, the wantonness of those in power would have been hampered, substantially decreasing unhappy incidents such as suspension and revision of the Constitution.

The Constitution of the Fifth Republic, enacted with such historical background and specific circumstances of our country taken into account, is appraised to have progressed one step further in guaranteeing human rights and in restricting power, which are the essential, basic principles of a modern constitution. The revival, for the protection of personal liberty, of the review of the legality of detention, the presumption of the innocence of the accused, the strict policy of making decisions based only on positive evidence, and the abolition of the guilty-by-association system are progressive steps that have substantially increased the nation's basic rights in comparison with the so-called Yusin Constitution.

Above all, with respect to the presidential term of office, [the present Constitution] makes revision itself out of the question and fixes the presidential term of office at a single term of 7 years, thus reflecting the nation's aspirations for a peaceful transfer of power. It will be 3 years on 2 years on 27 October since the promulgation of the new Constitution with such contents.

It is frustrating that gossip has circulated from time to time about a revision of the new Constitution less than three years old, because this could be interpreted as revealing the immaturity of our people's as democratic citizens as well as the rigid state of the political climate.

The rumor about revision of the constitution has receded because the president denied it. According to a recently conducted survey, a majority of the nation is understood to believe the government's promise to the effect that the Constitution will not be revised.

No one will dare to say that the present Constitution is the best. No system or law can be absolutely best.

There are areas requiring additions and revisions, including the revision of the presidential election from the current indirect election system to one of direct elections. However, there will not and should not be a revision to the Constitution for an extension of power.

The major obstacle to our political development is lack of trust. In an environment in which politicians frequently break their firm promises, the nation cannot have trust in politics, and the realization of a democratic Republic of Korea becomes a task which has a long way to go.

In the new Constitution, the term of office of the incumbent president precludes revision. No other promise is firmer than this one.

If a discussion on the revision of the Constitution should take place on the presidential term of office, rather than on other clauses, it will be disaster for the future of the country.

The nation has been exposed to the concept of democracy long enough for democracy to take root in the nation's consciousness. However, it should be noted that democracy is something that we fight for and win for ourselves, not something that is given us by somebody.
Constitution Day is the day when we bear in mind once again the spirit contained in the Constitution and renew our determination to defend it. Thirty-five years is not a very short period of time. The entire nation ought to observe the day with a renewed sense of determination and the spirit of mature citizens to have democracy settle in this country.

DAILY INTERVIEWS FORMER DJP CHAIRMAN

[Interview with Yi Chae-hyong, former DJP chairman and chairman of the Association of the Comrades of the Constituent Assembly]

[Excerpts] "I think that the first constitution was better than the revised or rewritten constitutions. As we have experienced several times, the constitution has not been revised out of patriotism or to defend the prosperity of the country and the nation, but because of a political feud, thereby causing an intensification of power or an undemocratic ruling system."

Having been elected six times as a lawmaker, Yi Chae-hyong, an advisor to the DJP and chairman of the Association of the Comrades of the Constituent Assembly, reemphasized the importance of defending the constitution on the occasion of its anniversary.

"What is important to us at this moment is not desire to have a better constitution, but a will to defend the one we have. I think that, while paying deep attention to the question of amending the constitution, the people have paid little attention to the question of defending the constitution."

For this reason, Chairman Yi Chae-hyong expressed his particular concern over the discussion of the question of rewriting the constitution—a question which was recently a hot issue in political quarters.

—When the rumor about the revision of the constitution came out, how did you feel about the rumor?

"I do not believe that the Constitution of the Fifth Republic is a perfect one. However, thinking that a better constitution can be made is dangerous. The more firmly we believe in the need to revise the constitution, the more coolly we should review the history of our constitution. We should believe that defending the Constitution of the Fifth Republic is how to have the best constitution."
--I think that, when the political ban is lifted and the political situation is complicated, the opposition camp may raise the question of amending the constitution. What do you think of this?

"It is probable that some opposition forces will come out with the direct presidential election system. There is no need to comment on this until the side which is responsible for accommodating public opinion raises the question of amending the constitution. I state again that defending the incumbent constitution is the way to have the best constitution."

--I think that, after the National Assembly goes through this year, with the IPU conference and the forthcoming regular house sitting, the wind of elections will blow next year, thus possibly creating a difficult political situation. What do you think of this?

"I do not understand why the operation of the 117th extraordinary house session was crippled despite the fact that the ruling and opposition camps had unanimously endorsed the draft budget bill last year. The question of extending the term of a session or the refusal of attendance at standing committees cannot be a reason for the paralysis of a house sitting. Furthermore, in view of the fact that both the ruling and opposition parties did not think of the crippled house operation as a serious matter, there was no pending issue to cause the operation of the National Assembly session to be crippled.

It is natural that, when an election approaches, confrontation between the ruling and opposition camps intensify. It is not desirable to numb house operations with a trivial matter. The ruling and opposition camps should assume an attitude of taking responsibility for the functioning of the National Assembly."

REDUCTION IN GOVERNMENT MANPOWER ASKED—Togyu—The ruling Democratic Justice Party (DJP) has requested the government to scale down unnecessary government organizations and cut their manpower. Party spokesman Kim Yong-tae said here yesterday that the reduction of both organizations and manpower is necessary because "there are still unnecessary offices although the government had curtailed its structure." He said the party recommendation was made to the government during a meeting attended by Prime Minister Kim Sang-hyop, relevant cabinet members and leading DJP officeholders Tuesday. The spokesman is here to attend the party's large-scale outdoor training at this scenic mountain in Cholla Pukto. The training will begin today with the participation of about 4,500 party members from across the country. The three-day training program is aimed at strengthening solidarity among party members and breathing "new life into regional branches throughout the country, according to the spokesman. COUNTRY SEEKS TO INTRODUCE MORE FOREIGN CAPITAL

SK190427 Seoul YONHAP in English 0302 GMT 19 Jul 83

[Text] Seoul, 19 Jul (YONHAP)—The government plans to revise the foreign capital-inducement system to facilitate inducement of foreign capital and promote investments by foreign nations or Korean residents abroad.

It is also planned to combine the several relevant laws, such as the foreign capital inducement law, foreign capital management law and public loan inducement and management law, into a foreign capital inducement law.

According to the plans of the Finance Ministry, the government will announce a list of "negative" businesses in which foreigners cannot invest.

At present, foreigners are subject to the so-called "positive list system" under which foreigners can invest in certain fields of business without being authorized by the Korean government.

Plans of the Finance Ministry will enable foreigners to invest freely in any business except for those on the negative list.

Foreign investments will not be permitted in public enterprises and will be partially restricted in the banking businesses.

No government approval will be necessary if foreign investment does not exceed 50 percent of the total equity.

Business requiring foreign investment exceeding 50 percent of the total capital should obtain government permit, according to the plans.

The plans also call for easing the stringent investment laws for Koreans residing abroad.

To promote the inducement of foreign capital, foreign loans not exceeding 5 million U.S. dollars will only require the approval of the Bank of Korea to be introduced.

The plans also call for changing the "approval system" into a reporting system concerning the introduction of foreign technology.
The government will merge the relevant agencies in charge of screening foreign capital inducement into a foreign capital deliberation committee to be headed by a minister-level official.

The Finance Ministry will submit the revision of relevant laws to the regular session of the National Assembly scheduled to open in September.

BACTERIOLOGICAL WARFARE RESEARCH INSTITUTE—Seoul, July 1—North Korea's bacteriological warfare research program has developed in response to Kim Il-song's instructions of December 1960. Research is currently done in laboratories in Haeju and Hamhung, and on uninhabited islands off the east coast. There is also a special research institute in the Pyongyang area, staffed by approximately 50 highly-trained experts in microbiology. These researchers have decided that cholera, plague and typhoid fever would be used for bacteriological warfare, and they have gone so far as to use condemned criminals as live subjects in their experiments. It is estimated that in time of war, these germs could certainly be dropped into forward areas, and might even reach rear areas as well. Summary Seoul PUKHAN in Korean 1 Jul 83 p 23
