“After all that has just passed, all the lives taken and all the possibilities and hopes that died with them, it is natural to wonder if America's future is one of fear. Some speak of an age of terror. I know there are struggles ahead and dangers to face. But this country will define our times, not be defined by them. As long as the United States of America is determined and strong, this will not be an age of terror. This will be an age of liberty here and across the world.

Great harm has been done to us. We have suffered great loss. And in our grief and anger we have found our mission and our moment. Freedom and fear are at war. The advance of human freedom, the great achievement of our time and the great hope of every time, now depends on us.

Our nation, this generation, will lift the dark threat of violence from our people and our future. We will rally the world to this cause by our efforts, by our courage. We will not tire, we will not falter and we will not fail.”

Preface

This bibliography consists of citations relating to the heightened focus on terrorism, homeland security, countermeasures and prevention, following the tragic attacks of 11 September 2001 on the United States.

Most of the items listed in Terrorism: A Selected Bibliography are dated 1999 to the present. All are available in the U.S. Army War College Library collection or on the Internet. For your convenience we have added our call numbers at the end of each book and document entry. Please keep in mind that call numbers may vary from library to library.

This bibliography is also available on the Internet through our home page at <http://www.carlisle.army.mil/library/>.

U.S. Department of Justice. Al Qaeda Training Manual. "... manual was located by the Manchester (England) Metropolitan Police during a search of an Al Qaeda member's home. The manual was found in a computer file described as "the military series" related to the 'Declaration of Jihad.' The manual was translated into English and was introduced earlier this year at the embassy bombing trial in New York. The Department is only providing the following selected text from the manual because it does not want to aid in 'educating terrorists or encourage further acts of terrorism."
