 8. The 59 CRD/Publications and Presentations Section will route the request form to clinical investigations, 502 ISG/JAC (Ethics Review) and Public Affairs (59 MDW/PA) for review and then forward you a final letter of approval or disapproval.
 9. Once your manuscript, poster or presentation has been approved for a one-time public release, you may proceed with your publication or presentation submission activities, as stated on this form. Note: For each new release of medical research or technical information as a publication/presentation, a new 59 MDW Form 3039 must be submitted for review and approval.
 10. If your manuscript is accepted for scientific publication, please contact the 59 CRD/Publications and Presentations Section at 292-7141. This information is reported to the 59 MDW/CC. All medical research or technical information publications/presentations must be reported to the Defense Technical Information Center (DITC). See 59 MDWI 41-108, Presentation and Publication of Medical and Technical Papers, for additional information.
 11. The Joint Ethics Regulation (JER) DoD 5500.07-R, Standards of Conduct, provides standards of ethical conduct for all DoD personnel and their interactions with other non-DoD entities, organizations, societies, conferences, etc. Part of the Form 3039 review and approval process includes a legal ethics review to address any potential conflicts related to DoD personnel participating in non-DoD sponsored conferences, professional meetings, publication/presentation disclosures to domestic and foreign audiences, DoD personnel accepting non-DoD contributions, awards, honoraria, gifts, etc. The specific circumstances for your presentation will determine whether a legal review is necessary. If you (as the author) or your supervisor check "NO" in block 17 of the Form 3039, your research or technical documents will not be forwarded to the 502 ISG/JAC legal office for an ethics review. To assist you in making this decision about whether to request a legal review, the following examples are provided as a guideline:
 - For presentations before professional societies and like organizations, the 59 MDW Public Affairs Office (PAO) will provide the needed review to ensure proper disclaimers are included and the subject matter of the presentation does not create any cause for DoD concern.
 - If the sponsor of a conference or meeting is a DoD entity, an ethics review of your presentation is not required, since the DoD entity is responsible to obtain all approvals for the event.
 - If the sponsor of a conference or meeting is a non-DoD commercial entity or an entity seeking to do business with the government, then your presentation should have an ethics review.
 - If your travel is being paid for (in whole or in part) by a non-Federal entity (someone other than the government), a legal ethics review is needed. These requests for legal review should come through the 59 MDW Gifts and Grants Office to 502 ISG/JAC.
 - If you are receiving an honorarium or payment for speaking, a legal ethics review is required.
 - If you (as the author) or your supervisor check "YES" in block 17 of the Form 3039, your research or technical documents will be forwarded simultaneously to the 502 ISG/JAC legal office and PAO for review to help reduce turn-around time. If you have any questions regarding legal reviews, please contact the legal office at (210) 671-5795/3365, DSN 473.

Surveillance Snapshot: Respiratory Infections Resulting in Hospitalization, U.S. Air Force Recruits, October 2009 – February 2017

Joshua R. Duncan, MD (Maj, USAF); Bryant J. Webber, MD, MPH (Maj, USAF)

FIGURE. Rates and hospital days for respiratory infections among U.S. Air Force recruits by fiscal year, October 2009-February 2017, with associated preventive medicine interventions

*Through 28 February 2017

^aGasmask cleaning protocols developed (October 2009) and novel H1N1 influenza vaccine initiated (December 2009)

^bAdenovirus vaccine reintroduced (November 2011) and group A streptococcus chemoprophylaxis transitioned from oral penicillin to intramuscular bicillin (January 2012)

Data sources: Trainee Health Surveillance hospitalization registry; U.S. Air Force Basic Training Management System

A number of vaccine and non-vaccine interventions have been used to reduce the historically high burden of respiratory infections during military training.¹ This snapshot displays the trend in hospitalizations for respiratory infections, stratified by major pathogens, and the associated hospital days, for all recruits in U.S. Air Force Basic Military Training at Joint Base San Antonio-Lackland, TX. Several preventive measures were employed throughout the surveillance period, to include an emphasis on hand hygiene, "head-to-toe" sleeping arrangements, liberal use of respiratory facemasks, and universal provision of seasonal influenza during non-summer months. Additional interventions were instituted during the period, to include a gasmask cleaning protocol (October 2009), provision of novel H1N1 influenza vaccine (December 2009), provision of year-round adenovirus (Ad4 and Ad7) vaccine (November 2011), and a switch in chemoprophylaxis against group A streptococcus from oral penicillin to intramuscular bicillin

(January 2012). Although causality should not be assumed, these interventions appear to be inversely related with hospitalization rates, are largely evidence-based,^{2,3} and should continue at military training sites.
