

AD-A272 703

September 24, 1976
NUMBER 5030.8

ASD(I&L)

Department of Defense Directive

SUBJECT Office of the Coordinator for Ship Repair and Conversion for the Department of Defense and the Department of Commerce

- References: (a) DoD Instruction 5030.8, "Letter of Agreement between the Department of Defense and the Department of Commerce Establishing the Office of the Coordinator for Ship Repair and Conversion," July 30, 1956 (hereby cancelled)
- (b) DoD Directive 5030.9, "Coordination of Shipbuilding, Conversion and Repair for the Department of Defense," January 19, 1972

I. REISSUANCE AND PURPOSE

This Directive reissues reference (a) to update Department of Defense policy with respect to the Office of the Coordinator for Ship Repair and Conversion for the Department of Defense and the Department of Commerce, and designates responsibilities of this Office within the Department of Defense. Reference (a) is hereby superseded and cancelled.

II. APPLICABILITY

The provisions of this Directive apply to the Military Departments and to other DoD Components having an interest in conversion and repair of ships.

III. POLICY

- A. In order to maintain a nucleus coordinative function, the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Installations and Logistics) is hereby authorized on behalf of the Department of Defense to enter into agreements with the

DISTRIBUTION STATEMENT A
Approved for public release
Distribution Unlimited

93 11 184

DTIC
SELECTED
NOV 16 1998
S B D

93-26999

5

Department of Commerce for coordination of ship repair and ship conversion requirements, and to review, amend, and update such agreements as necessary.

- B. The operations of the Office of the Coordinator shall be carried out so as not to interfere with or duplicate the internal Department of Defense systems for assignment of DoD priorities and operations of DoD vessels. The Office of the Coordinator, with ASD(I&L) concurrence, may assign specific additional duties to DoD field organizations in connection with its overall coordinative responsibilities.
- C. DoD Directive 5030.9 (reference (b)) assigns the Commander, Naval Ship Systems Command (whose successor is the Commander, Naval Sea Systems Command), additional duty as Coordinator of Shipbuilding, Conversion and Repair for the Department of Defense.
1. In accordance with the Letter of Agreement (enclosure 1), the Coordinator of Shipbuilding, Conversion and Repair for DoD is hereby reconfirmed as Coordinator of Ship Repair and Conversion for the Department of Defense and Department of Commerce.
 2. The Assistant Administrator for Operations, Maritime Administration, Department of Commerce, shall serve as Deputy Coordinator.
- D. The Coordinator shall carry out the responsibilities of the Office as set forth in the Letter of Agreement (enclosure 1).

IV. EFFECTIVE DATE AND IMPLEMENTATION

This Directive is effective immediately. Two copies of implementing instructions shall be forwarded to the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Installations and Logistics) within 90 days.

H. P. Clement
Deputy Secretary of Defense

Enclosure - 1
Letter of Agreement

Sept 24, 76

REVISED LETTER OF AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE AND THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE ESTABLISHING
THE OFFICE OF THE COORDINATOR FOR SHIP REPAIR AND CONVERSION

The Department of Defense and the Department of Commerce, with the concurrence of the Office of Preparedness, General Services Administration, hereby jointly revise and update the Letter of Agreement of 9 November 1955 which created the Office of the Coordinator for Ship Repair and Conversion for the purpose of more effectively handling repair and conversion in the shipyards of the continental United States of all ships under the control of both Departments and those of friendly nations.

The Coordinator will maintain appropriate records covering available facilities and capacities of the various shipyards and repair plants to enable the two Departments to use such repair facilities to the best advantage.

The Coordinator will conduct investigations and will maintain sufficient data to facilitate gauging the current potential of the ship repair industry compared with full mobilization requirements. He will consult with both Departments and make recommendations of measures necessary to maintain an adequate industrial mobilization base.

The Coordinator will normally engage only in planning functions, except during periods of national emergency or mobilization. The Coordinator will not be responsible for the actual placing of orders and contracts.

The Coordinator will compile requirements for materials required for the repair and conversion programs and will submit these requirements to the proper authority.

The Department of Commerce specifically delegates to the Coordinator authority to call on all Maritime Administration Field representatives for any information on ship repair plants under their cognizance relative to the functions of his Office. The Department of Defense specifically delegates the same authority to the Coordinator in connection with all Supervisors of Shipbuilding, Conversion and Repair.

The Coordinator of Shipbuilding, Conversion and Repair for the Department of Defense will be consulted on all ship repair and conversion matters concerning the Department of Defense and the Assistant Administrator for Operations, Maritime Administration, Department of Commerce, will likewise be consulted on all ship repair and conversion matters concerning the Department of Commerce. Questions of policy will be submitted directly to the Secretary of Defense or the Secretary of Commerce.

The Coordinator will maintain on his staff or in a liaison capacity adequate representation from both Departments to carry out his functions.

Provision for the necessary offices, personnel, equipment and expenses of the Office of the Coordinator will be made under a plan to be approved by the Department of Defense and the Department of Commerce.

The Coordinator of Shipbuilding, Conversion and Repair for the Department of Defense is hereby appointed Coordinator of Ship Repair and Conversion for the Department of Defense and the Department of Commerce. The Assistant Administrator for Operations, Maritime Administration, Department of Commerce is hereby appointed to act as Deputy Coordinator. They will continue to serve in this capacity after mobilization until such time as the Secretary of Defense and the Secretary of Commerce agree to effect a change.

12 August 1975

Paul H. Riley
Acting ASD (I&L)

Robert J. Blackburn
A/S for Maritime Affairs

DTIC QUALITY INSPECTED 6

Accession For
NTIS GRA&I	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DTIC TAB	<input type="checkbox"/>
Unannounced	<input type="checkbox"/>
Justification
By performed
Distribution/
Availability Codes
Dist	Avail and/or Special
A-1	