a. OSD, the Military Departments, the Office of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Joint Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities within the Department of Defense (hereafter referred to collectively as the “DoD Components”).

b. The Commissioned Corps of the Public Health Service under agreement with the Department of Health and Human Services.

3. DEFINITIONS. See Glossary.

4. POLICY. It is DoD policy, in accordance with Reference (b), that

a. Members of the U.S. Armed Forces shall, through the DoD Military Awards Program, receive tangible recognition for acts of valor, acts of heroism, and exceptional service or achievement.

b. Recommendations for decorations and awards must be placed into official channels as stated by official guidance for that particular award. Section 1130 of title 10, United States Code (U.S.C.) (Reference (f)) allows any member of Congress to request consideration of a proposal for the award or presentation of a decoration or award not previously submitted in a timely fashion. Decoration and award review requests submitted under the authority of section 1130 of Reference (f) are covered in section 4 of Enclosure 3 in Volume 1 of this Manual.

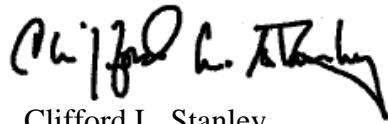

c. Only one decoration is awarded for the same act, achievement, or period of service for any individual or unit, unless a specific exception is contained in the applicable section of this Manual. However, an award for individual valor, heroism, or specific achievement within a longer period of meritorious service is not considered duplication, provided the citation for the meritorious service or the accompanying documentation justifying the award does not cite any of the actions for which the valorous or specific achievement award was given. The fact that a Service member receives a DoD Campaign, Expeditionary, or Service (CE&S) medal, or a unit award, does not limit the awarding of personal decorations during that same period.

DoD-WIDE VALOR AND PERFORMANCE DECORATIONS AND AWARDS

(Awards are listed in order of precedence.)

1. SILVER STAR

a. Introduction. The Silver Star medal is the third highest military valor decoration that can be awarded to a person serving in any capacity with the U.S. Armed Forces. It is the highest U.S. Military valor decoration that may be awarded to members of the armed forces of friendly foreign nations.

b. Award Category. U.S. Military Personal Performance Award.

c. Eligibility Requirements

(1) Eligibility Criteria

(a) The Silver Star may be awarded according to sections 3746, 6244, and 8746 of Reference (f) to any individual while serving in any capacity with the U.S. Armed Forces, who distinguishes himself or herself by gallantry in action under any of the following circumstances:

1. While engaged in an action against an enemy of the United States.

2. While engaged in military operations involving conflict with an opposing foreign force.

3. While serving with friendly foreign forces engaged in an armed conflict against an opposing armed force in which the United States is not a belligerent party.

(b) The required gallantry, while of a lesser degree than that required for award of the Army Distinguished Service Cross, the Navy Cross, or the Air Force Cross, must nevertheless have been performed with marked distinction.

(c) The Silver Star medal may be awarded posthumously.

(2) Definitions. See Glossary.

d. Foreign Military Personnel. Members of the armed forces of friendly foreign nations may be awarded the Silver Star medal for valorous acts in actual combat in direct support of U.S. Military operations. See section 12 of this enclosure for procedures for awarding U.S. Military medals to foreign personnel.

e. Procedures

(1) U.S. Military Personnel. Each Military Department shall prescribe appropriate regulations for administrative processing, awarding, and wearing of the Silver Star Medal, ribbon, and appurtenances.

(2) Foreign Military Personnel. Procedures for processing Silver Star recommendations for eligible foreign personnel are contained in paragraph 12.b. of this enclosure.

2. LEGION OF MERIT (LOM)

a. Introduction. The LOM is governed by E.O. 9260 (Reference (1)) and section 1121 of Reference (f), which authorizes the President of the United States to award the LOM to any member of the U.S. Armed Forces and to any member of the armed forces of friendly foreign nations who has distinguished himself or herself by exceptionally meritorious conduct in performing outstanding services. On February 5, 1943, President Roosevelt notified General Marshall that his approval was no longer required to award the LOM, delegating LOM approval authority for members of the U.S. Armed Forces to the Military Departments.

b. Award Category. U.S. Military Personal Performance Award.

c. Eligibility Requirements

(1) Eligibility Criteria – Members of U.S. Armed Forces

(a) The decoration of the LOM may be awarded by the Secretary concerned to members of the U.S. Armed Forces, who, after September 8, 1939, have distinguished themselves by exceptionally meritorious conduct in the performance of outstanding services.

(b) The performance must have been such as to merit recognition of key individuals for service rendered in a clearly exceptional manner. Performance of duties normal to the grade, branch, specialty, assignment, or experience of an individual is not an adequate basis for this award.

(c) For service rendered in peacetime, the term “key individual” applies to a narrower range of positions than would be the case in time of war and requires evidence of significant achievement. In peacetime, service should be in the nature of a special requirement or of an extremely difficult duty performed in an unprecedented and clearly exceptional manner. However, justification of the award may accrue by virtue of exceptionally meritorious service in a succession of important positions.

(d) The LOM is awarded to members of the U.S. Armed Forces without degree.

(2) Eligibility Criteria - Members of Armed Forces of Friendly Foreign Nations. The LOM, in four varying degrees, may be awarded to members of the armed forces of friendly foreign nations who, after September 8, 1939, have distinguished themselves by exceptionally meritorious conduct in the performance of outstanding services to the United States. See subparagraph 12.c.(1) of this enclosure for additional information on award of LOM to eligible foreign personnel.

(3) Definitions. See Glossary.

d. Procedures

(1) Members of U.S. Armed Forces. Each Military Department shall prescribe appropriate regulations for administrative processing, awarding, and wearing of the LOM, ribbon, and appurtenances for Service members in their respective Department.

(2) Members of the Armed Forces of Friendly Foreign Nations. Procedures for processing LOM recommendations for eligible foreign personnel are contained in subparagraph 12.c.(1) of this enclosure.

- (b) Navy and Marine Corps. See Reference (j).

b. Award Category. U.S. Military Personal/Individual Performance Award.

c. Eligibility Requirements

(1) Eligibility Criteria

(a) The DFC may be awarded to any persons who, after April 6, 1917, while serving in any capacity with the U.S. Armed Forces, distinguish themselves by heroism or extraordinary achievement while participating in aerial flight.

1. The performance of the act of heroism must be evidenced by voluntary action above and beyond the call of duty.

2. The extraordinary achievement must have resulted in an accomplishment so exceptional and outstanding as to clearly set the individual apart from comrades or from other persons in similar circumstances.

3. Awards will be made only to recognize single acts of heroism or extraordinary achievement and will not be made in recognition of sustained operational activities against an armed enemy.

(b) Civilians are not eligible for the award of the DFC.

(2) Subsequent awards are denoted by wearing the appropriate device on the suspension and service ribbon of the medal.

i. Authorized Devices. Refer to the applicable Military Department regulation (References (i), (j), or (k)) for specific guidance on wear of authorized devices. Authorized devices are:

(1) "V" Device.

(2) Oak-Leaf Cluster (bronze and/or silver).

(3) 5/16 Inch Star (gold and/or silver).

After May 17, 1998, award of the PH was limited to members of the Armed Forces by Section 1131 of Reference (f). (b) A wound for which the award is made must have required treatment, not merely examination, by a medical officer. Additionally, treatment of the wound shall be documented in the Service member's medical and/or health record. Award of the PH may be made for wounds treated by a medical professional other than a medical officer provided a medical officer includes a statement in the Service member's medical record that the extent of the wounds were such that they would have required treatment by a medical officer if one had been available to treat them.

9. NOTIFICATION TO MEMBERS OF CONGRESS REGARDING VALOR AWARDS

a. It is DoD policy in accordance with Reference (b) that:

(1) Upon request of a member of Congress pursuant to section 1130 of Reference (f), the Secretary concerned shall review the proposal for the award or presentation of decoration (or the upgrading of a decoration), either for an individual or unit, that is not otherwise authorized to be presented or awarded due to limitations established by law or policy for timely submission of a recommendation for such award or presentation. Based upon such review, the Secretary concerned shall make a determination as to the merits of approving the award or presentation of the decoration and other determinations necessary to comply with congressional reporting in accordance with Reference (f). Upon determination by the Secretary concerned that a Service Cross or Silver Star award merits approval, the Secretary concerned shall seek the appropriate time waiver from Congress if required.

(2) Subject to subparagraphs 9.b. and 9.c., of this enclosure, release and distribute individual Service member's rank, name, title of award, and legal residence and/or domicile (voting district and State or city and State as determined by the Military Department concerned) to the Service member's congressional delegation (Senate and House) when certain decorations are awarded. This policy shall apply when the Service member is awarded one of the following medals from the Department of Defense or their respective Military Department:

- (c) The Navy Cross
- (d) The Air Force Cross

b. Release and distribute the information in subparagraph 9.a.(2):

(1) When it will not present a compromise to national security, ongoing military operations, or the overall security of the Department of Defense. If the awardee is serving in an intelligence, counterintelligence, special mission or security position, and/or involved in sensitive programs or operations or is in a unit or a position that frequently or regularly deploys overseas, the above mentioned information will not be released without concurrence from the appropriate Service Intelligence and/or Security Office.

(2) When it will not create an undue risk to the privacy and security of the awardees and their families. Where such a risk is possible, the information may be denied.

(3) Only after official announcement or presentation of the award occurs. This is to prevent premature disclosure that could minimize the impact of ceremonies.

(4) With the following statement attached: "The information contained herein is provided to Congress in the event members wish to convey congratulations to valorous Service members. Geographic locations or units of assignment of awardees, while not classified, may potentially expose the member to risk if the information is publicized openly, or released without attention to purpose."

c. The citation and certificate of the awards listed in subparagraph 9.a.(2) of this section will NOT be forwarded to Congress unless specifically requested by a member of Congress. Upon receipt of requests for additional information such as information on all awards, decorations, or citations, the Military Departments shall conduct a security and privacy review and obtain concurrence to release from appropriate Military Department intelligence and/or security officials, as well as their privacy office. In those situations where a Military Department believes there is a risk of compromise of classified information, the classified information will be sanitized by removing or rewording the identifying particulars or the release may be denied. This applies to all requests for award citations listed in subparagraph 9.a.(2) of this section. The Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Intelligence is available to assist Service intelligence and/or security officials in reviewing those releases where security and the potential compromise of classified information are an issue. The cover statement put forth in subparagraph 9.b.(4) of this section must accompany all citation and certificate information provided to Congress.

11. FOREIGN DECORATIONS AND SERVICE AWARDS

a. Introduction

(1) Section 7342 of title 5, U.S.C. (Reference (u)) provides for employees of the U.S. Government, including members of the U.S. Armed Forces, to accept gifts or decorations from a foreign government under certain conditions. However, no DoD employee may request, or otherwise encourage, the offer of a decoration or award from a foreign government. When possible, employees shall refuse to accept such decorations or awards unless refusal would likely cause offense or embarrassment or otherwise adversely affect the foreign relations of the United States. Refer to DoDD 1005.13 (Reference (v)) for guidance regarding the acceptance of gifts from foreign governments.

(2) Conforming to the consent of Congress, it is DoD policy in accordance with Reference (b) that awards from foreign governments may be accepted only in recognition of active combat service or for outstanding or unusually meritorious performance. Activities normally undertaken by the U.S. Armed Forces in support of an ally during peacetime are not considered sufficient to merit foreign individual or unit decorations.

b. General Provisions

(1) Definitions. As used in this section, the following terms apply:

(a) Decorations. Any order, device, medal, badge, insignia, emblem, or award tendered by or received from a foreign government. Although a foreign government may label or consider an item to be a decoration, that designation in itself does not mean the item shall be considered a decoration by the U.S. Government. The key factor is whether the item is similar in nature to individual decorations awarded by the U.S. Government.

(b) Employee. Every member of the U.S. Armed Forces, or the spouse of a member of the U.S. Armed Forces, or a dependent (within the meaning of section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (Reference (w))) of a member of the U.S. Armed Forces.

(c) Employing Component. The DoD Component in which the recipient is appointed, employed, or enlisted. If a recipient is not so serving, but is a spouse or dependent of a serving individual, then the employing DoD Component is that in which the serving individual is appointed, employed, or enlisted.

1. The Military Department in which military or civilian personnel are assigned is considered the employing DoD Component for said personnel. The respective Military Department also acts as the employing DOD Component for all of the military and civilian personnel from that respective Military Department employed or assigned to the Headquarters of the Combatant Commands.

2. The OSD is the employing DoD Component for its military and civilian personnel, and those of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Joint Staff, Service members assigned outside the Department of Defense, the DoD Field Activities, and the other DoD activities not specifically designated as an employing DoD Component.

3. The Defense Agencies are the employing DoD Components for military and civilian personnel assigned to duty with them.

(d) Foreign Government. Includes any unit of foreign governmental authority (including any foreign national, state, local, and municipal government) or any international or multinational organization whose membership is composed of any unit of foreign government or any agent or representative of any such unit or such organization while acting as such.

(e) Outstanding or Unusually Meritorious Performance. Performance of duty determined by the employing DoD Component to have contributed to an unusually significant degree toward the furtherance of good relations between the United States and the foreign government tendering the decoration. This requires that the service be of national significance to the foreign government and that it be performed under exceptionally difficult, extraordinary, or hazardous conditions.

(2) Responsibilities. As used in this section, the following responsibilities apply:

(a) The USD(P&R) shall develop policy and provide guidance regarding the acceptance, retention, and wearing of decorations offered by foreign governments.

(b) The Assistant Secretaries of Defense (International Security Affairs and Asian and Pacific Security Affairs), both under the authority, direction and control of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (USD(P)), shall make recommendations to the USD(P) as they pertain to the acceptance and retention of foreign decorations. That shall include, when appropriate, a recommendation from the Department of State.

(c) The Heads of the DoD Components shall:

1. Approve or disapprove employee acceptance of decorations from foreign governments for employees, units, or activities of their DoD Component. If the recipient of the decoration is the Head of the DoD Component the approval or disapproval determination must be deferred to the USD(P&R).

2. Implement procedures in paragraph 11.d of this enclosure, to comply with policies pertaining to the acceptance, retention, and wearing of decorations offered by foreign governments.

(d) The DA&M shall implement portions of this section for OSD civilian and military personnel, as defined in subparagraph 11.b.(1) of this enclosure.

(3) Prior Congressional Consent. Congressional authority has been given to the U.S. Armed Forces to accept decorations proffered by friendly foreign governments in recognition of service performed during the periods indicated in subparagraphs 11.b.(3)(a) through 11.b.(3)(d). However, the decorations must have been presented and accepted by the intended recipient before the expiration date of the applicable law.

(a) World War II – December 7, 1941, through July 24, 1948, authorized by P.L. 80-314 (Reference (x)).

(b) Berlin Airlift – June 26, 1948, through September 20, 1951, authorized by P.L. 81-503 (Reference (y)).

(c) Korean Conflict – June 27, 1950, through July 27, 1955, authorized by P.L. 83-354 (Reference (z)).

(d) Vietnam Era – March 1, 1961, through March 28, 1974, authorized by P.L. 89-257 (Reference (aa)).

c. Specific Provisions

(1) The provisions of section 7342 of Reference (u) apply to:

(a) All members of the U.S. Armed Forces on active duty and all civilian employees of the Department of Defense.

(b) All members of the Reserve Components of the U.S. Armed Forces, whether or not on active duty.

(c) All retired members of the U.S. Armed Forces who are entitled to pay.

(d) A spouse or dependent of military and civilian personnel designated in subparagraphs 11.c.(1)(a) through 11.c.(1)(c) of this enclosure. A dependent is as defined in section 152 of title 26, U.S.C. (Reference (ab)).

(2) The provisions of section 152 of Reference (ab) do not apply to:

(a) Foreign decorations presented or awarded posthumously to a former member of the U.S. Armed Forces.

(b) Foreign decorations awarded for services while the recipient was a member of the armed forces of a friendly foreign nation, provided the award was made before employment of the recipient by the U.S. Government.

(c) Foreign decorations in the nature of individual skill badges, awards, or similar devices presented as a result of exemplary participation in official military exchange programs.

(d) Decorations for service in the Republic of Vietnam accepted on or after March 1, 1961, but no later than March 28, 1974.

(3) Service (CE&S) medal from a multilateral organization other than the United Nations (UN) may be accepted only with the concurrence of the Secretary of State, in accordance with E.O. 11446 (Reference (ac)).

(4) A decoration accepted without approval by the employing DoD Component shall become the property of the United States and shall be reported as a gift. Decorations that become the property of the United States and are not retained by the employing DoD Component shall be reported to the General Services Administration as excess personal property under the procedures established in Reference (v).

d. Procedures

(1) Normally, senior representatives of the U.S. Government are notified initially by representatives of a foreign government of the intent to proffer a decoration to a member of the U.S. Armed Forces. At that point, a determination shall be made by the employing DoD Component as to whether acceptance is authorized.

(2) If the intended recipient receives the initial notification, he or she must notify the employing DoD Component to determine whether acceptance is authorized. Circumstances may arise where an advance authorization cannot be made and, in such cases, Service members may make token acceptance of a foreign decoration, presented by or for a friendly foreign government. However, such token acceptance does not constitute an official acceptance, which may only be authorized by the Service member's employing DoD Component.

(3) Regardless of whether the Service member receives the initial notification or makes token acceptance of a decoration, the Service member must immediately submit a request through command channels for permission to accept the decoration. Failure to request permission to accept, retain, or wear the decoration shall result in the decoration becoming the property of the United States and shall be deposited by the recipient with his or her employing DoD Component for disposal, as prescribed by law. Requests to accept, retain, or wear the decoration shall contain at a minimum:

(a) Full name, grade, and last four digits of the social security number of the requestor.

(b) Title of decoration, country offering it, date and place of presentation, and name and title of person making the presentation.

(c) Requestor's organization and station, and a brief description of the duty assignment during the period being recognized by the decoration.

(d) A statement of the service for which the decoration was awarded. Enclose a copy of the citation if one accompanied the decoration; if not, indicate in the request that no citation accompanied the decoration. (Attach a translation if the citation is not in English.)

e. Foreign Service Awards and Decorations. The following non-U.S. service medals have been authorized for acceptance as indicated:

(1) United Nations Medal (UNM)

(a) Authorized by the Secretary General of the UN for specific UN missions and actions. E.O. 11139 (Reference (ad)) authorizes the Secretary of Defense to approve acceptance and wear by U.S. Service members who meet criteria specified by the Secretary General of the United Nations. Reference (a) delegates Secretary of Defense responsibility and authority for recognition programs to the USD(P&R).

(b) UNM is an all encompassing term used to describe the basic bronze medallion, with the UN emblem and the letters UN on the obverse, suspended from a ribbon.

It is worn to denote personal valor (combat heroism) in combat with an armed enemy of the United States. The Department of the Navy also uses the "V" device as a "combat distinguishing device" to recognize individuals who are exposed to personal hazard involving direct participation in combat operations. Effective 1 year from the date of this Manual, the Department of the Navy shall differentiate, for reporting purposes, subsequent medals awarded with a "V" device for valorous actions from those awarded with a "V" device for exposure to personal hazard involving direct participation in combat operations. The "V" device was originally worn (starting in 1945) only on the suspension and service ribbons of the BSM to denote an award for valor. In the case of multiple "V" devices for the same award, only one "V" device is worn on the suspension and service ribbons. (1) The arrowhead device is worn to denote participation by a U.S. Army Service member in a combat parachute jump, helicopter assault landing, combat glider landing, or amphibious assault landing, while assigned or attached as a member of an organized force carrying out an assigned tactical mission. A Soldier must actually exit the aircraft or watercraft to receive assault credit. Individual assault credit is tied directly to the combat assault credit decision for the unit to which the Soldier is attached or assigned at the time of the assault. Should a unit be denied assault, no assault credit will accrue to the individual Soldiers of the unit.

(2) The arrowhead device is a bronze replica of a Native American arrowhead 1/4 inch high. No more than one arrowhead device may be worn per authorized service medal. The arrowhead device is authorized for wear on the following CE&S medals:

(2) The FMF combat operations insignia is a restrictive device. Merely being an attachment to operations with a Marine Corps unit is not sufficient to establish eligibility. The unit, or individual assigned to a unit, must have engaged in active combat during service with the unit. No more than one insignia may be worn on an authorized CE&S medal. The FMF combat operations insignia may be authorized by the Marine Corps unit commander for wear on the following campaign and expeditionary medals:

The “M” device may be awarded for subsequent qualifying operations, not for subsequent deployments in support of the same operation. After initial award, subsequent awards are denoted by wearing an Arabic numeral indicating the number of times the “M” device has been awarded (e.g., the number “2” is worn to indicate two awards). The numeral is worn on the AFRM ribbon to the left of the “M” device. Also see hourglass device (paragraph 14.j. of this enclosure).
