Standard Form 298 (Rev. 8-98)
Prepared by ASSI Std Z9-18
CNA is a not-for-profit organization whose professional staff of over 700 provides in-depth analysis and results-oriented solutions to help government leaders choose the best courses of action. Founded in 1942, CNA operates the Institute for Public Research and the Center for Naval Analyses, the federally funded research and development center (FFRDC) of the U.S. Navy and Marine Corps.

CNA Strategic Studies (CSS), created in 2000, conducts high-quality research on and analysis of issues of strategic, regional, and policy importance. CSS’ analyses are based on objective, rigorous examination and do not simply echo conventional wisdom. CSS provides analytic support to U.S. Government organizations and the governments of partner countries. CSS also maintains notable foundation-sponsored and self-initiated research programs. CSS includes a Strategic Initiatives Group, an International Affairs Group, and a Center for Stability and Development.

The Strategic Initiatives Group (SIG) looks at issues of U.S. national security, and military strategy, policy and operations, with a particular focus on maritime and naval aspects. SIG employs experts in historical analyses, futures planning, and long-term trend analysis based on scenario planning, to help key decision makers plan for the future. SIG specialties also include issues related to regional and global proliferation, deterrence theory, threat mitigation, and strategic planning for combating threats from weapons of mass destruction.

The Strategic Studies Division is led by Vice President and Director Dr. Eric V. Thompson, who is available at 703-824-2243 and on e-mail at thompsoe@cna.org. The executive assistant to the Vice President and Director is Ms. Rebecca Martin, at 703-824-2604.

The principal author of this study thanks especially Karin Duggan for graphic assistance; Loretta Ebner for administrative assistance; Gregory Kaminski, Laurie Ann Lakatosh, and Rhea Stone for library assistance; and Dana Smith and Anwar Fry for production assistance. A full listing of substantive contributors can be found in Peter M. Swartz and Karin Duggan, U.S. Navy Capstone Strategies and Concepts: Introduction and Background: Volume I, (D0026421.A1, December 2011). A full listing of all volumes in the CNA Navy Strategy series can be found on the inside back cover of this document.

Approved for distribution: December 2011

Congressional Budget Office (CBO) studies

- Department of the Navy submitted Report to Congress on Annual Long-range Plan for Construction of Naval Vessels for FY 2007 (Feb 2006)
- Congress’s CBO subsequently published Options for the Navy’s Future Fleet, analyzing that plan & estimating its potential cost (May 2006)
- Each subsequent Navy shipbuilding plan submitted to Congress was followed by a similar independent CBO analysis
  - Each study drafted by CBO national security analyst Eric Labs

2000s: USN deployment strategy

- 7 #d fleets: 1 forward-based, 3 forward deployed, 2 home
- 4th, 6th Flts fleets in name only. No big Med/LATAM “hubs”
- 10th Flt/FLTCYBERCOM: No ships or aircraft assigned
- 2 home fleets focused on homeland defense, trng, surge
- SSN, SSBN, SSGN deployments; more SSBNs in PAC
- Deployments less routinized. More surge capability

2000s: USN operations & exercises
2000s: State of the Navy (I)

- USN the world’s dominant sea power
- High global OPTEMPO, experience, expertise
- USN combat ops were against the shore
- Continued minimal USN combat experience in war at sea (since 1945)
- Heavy SECDEF & CCDR demand for forward naval forces stressed USN capabilities, despite budget increases
- USN sized/shaped to:
  - Fight 2 joint regional wars
  - Conduct peacetime/crisis response forward presence
  - Conduct counter-terrorism operations

2000s: State of the Navy (II)

- Continued extensive global ops, exercises (focus on combat; some shows of force & HA/DR ops)
  - Continuous Afghanistan, Iraq combat & support operations
  - Philippines, Horn of Africa COIN, counter-terror operations
  - Liberia, Lebanon NEO ops; Freedom of Navigation ops
  - Forward SSN, P-3, EP-3, UAV ISR operations
  - SSBN deterrent patrols; BMD patrols; SSGN operations
  - Pro-active “war prevention” operations
    - Africa, Southern Partnership Stations, Pacific Partnership, etc.
  - Disaster Response ops: US, Indonesia, Pakistan, Haiti, etc.
  - Caribbean & Eastern Pacific counter-drug operations
  - Gulf of Aden and Arabian Sea counter-piracy ops
  - Global USN, inter-allied and partner exercises
- Number of USN responses to situations dropped
  - Now a dozen continuous long-running campaigns
2000s: State of the Navy (III)

- Mostly increasing annual budgets
  - Increasing Supplemental/Overseas Contingency Operations (OCO) budgets as well as increasing base budgets (since Sep 2001)
  - Skyrocketing operating & manpower costs absorbed much of the increase
  - Greatly increased procurement funding
  - Improved fleet readiness in some areas
    - Enabled improved fleet forward presence & surge capabilities
    - But surface fleet suffered from deliberate under-manning, reduced maintenance, to control costs

2000s: State of the Navy (IV)

- Number of ships in fleet declined, even as DON budgets increased
  - 18% decline (2001-2010)
  - Total fleet tonnage increased somewhat; USN increasingly a “big ship Navy” until end of decade
  - Continued cuts in Cold War-optimized ships & aircraft
    - All 31 Spruance-class DDs decommissioned (1998-2005)
    - All 12 Osprey-class MHCs decommissioned (2006-7)
    - Last Newport-class LST de-commissioned (2002)
    - Last F-14 fighter aircraft retired (2006)
    - Last S-3 Viking ASW aircraft retired (2009)
    - 9 more Perry-class FFGs decommissioned; missile launchers removed from remaining FFGs
  - 2 new carriers, 10 submarines, 18 destroyers, 8 amphibs, 12 logistics ships, 6 LCS, 2 JHSV's built or building
  - 369 new F/A-18E/F, 78 EA-18G, 300 MH60R/S aircraft
2000s: State of the Navy (V)

- Deployment lengths increasingly variable
  - Some as high as 7-10 months
- Changes in fleet readiness & PERSTEMPO policies allowed for longer, more frequent deployments
- 18% decrease in Battle Force size over the decade:
  - Number of ships forward stationed and forward deployed remained fairly constant (WESTPAC & CENTCOM AOR)
  - Number of ships training and exercising off CONUS decreased from 70 (1998) to 20 (2010)
  - Number of ships in EUCOM AOR decreased
- About 3 aircraft carriers deployed at any one time
  - About the same as in 1990s
  - Down from 7-10 (1950s-1960s) & 4-5 (1970s-1980s)

2000s: State of the Navy (VI)

- Significant shift in LANT/PAC fleet balance
  - 2001: 55/45 split (LANT 10% larger)
  - 2006: 53/47 split (LANT 6% larger)
  - 2007: 49/51 split (PAC 2% larger)
  - 2008: 47/53 split (PAC 6% larger)
  - 2010: 42/58 split (PAC 16% larger)
- Build-up in Pacific AOR
  - 1st CVN homeported in Japan (2008)
  - Mid-Pacific Surface Combatant Operational Employment program: Hawaii-based ships deployed, trained in WESTPAC vice SOCAL (from 2008 on)
- LANT, MED no longer major USN operational theaters
  - Med combat-credible forward deployed hub gone
  - But small Med BMD buildup at end of decade
- Number of port visits declined across decade
2000s: State of the Navy (VII)

- Shift from “CVBGs” & “ARG/MEU(SOC)s” to “CSGs” & “ESGs” (then back to “ARG/MEUs”)
- Increased focus on strategic planning, pol-mil affairs & international engagement ops
- Continued focus on PLAN capabilities increase
  - Continued deployment of USN surveillance ships, a/c
  - PLAN harassment of USN ocean surveillance (T-AGOS) ships (Mar, May 2010)
  - On-again, off-again USN military-to-military contact with PLAN

- NAVSTA Ingleside TX closed (2010); Mine warfare bases, schools, forces to SOCAL (2009)
- Basing plan for new P-8 MMA announced (Jan 2009)
  - 6 squadrons to LANT (JAX)
  - 7 squadrons to PAC (Whidbey Island, Kaneohe)
- Mayport FL nuclear aircraft carrier homeporting issue
  - Bush Administration SECNAV Winter decision to put CVN in Mayport vice NORVA (Jan 2009)
  - Obama Administration QDR confirmed move (Feb 2010)
  - Dredging began (2010)
  - Virginia congressional delegation continued to oppose
2000s: US Navy basing (VI)

- More USN ships based in PAC than LANT (2007)
  - 1st time in 60 years
- Singapore opened CVN-capable Changi Naval Base pier (2001)
- Subic Bay (RP) used for USN SSN tender support (2008)
- USNS Stockham (T-AK 3017), other vessels used as sea base supporting OIF Philippines ops
- Vietnamese facilities used for maintenance/repair of USN MSC ships (from 2009)

2000s: US Navy basing (VII)

- Expansion, modernization of USN Guam facilities
  - Continued submarine tender presence at Guam (USS Frank Cable (AS-40))
  - 3 attack submarines began homeporting in Guam (2002-2007)
  - Guam supported 3 USN SSGNs during 2010 deployment
  - Transient berth construction planned for Apra Harbor for visiting aircraft carriers
    - Decision not to homeport CVN in Guam (2007)
2000s: US Navy basing (VIII)

- USN VAQ aircraft forward based in Turkey, Saudi Arabia, later Iraq, Afghanistan
- USN VP forward based in Iraq & Qatar
- USN leased, deployed Ocean 6 barge as sea base & command center off Iraqi oil terminal (from 2006)

2000s: US Navy basing (IX)

- USN CNIC took command of joint base Camp Lemonnier, Djibouti (& CJTF HOA) from USMC (2006)
  - Joint, US Army, USN, USAF, USMC tenants
  - Base expansion all through the decade
  - Funded from wartime supplemental funds
- USN counter-piracy VP a/c flew from Seychelles (from 2009)
- Diego Garcia wharf upgrades for forward tender USS Emory S. Land (AS 39) (2010)
2000s: US Navy basing (X)

- Expanded USN use of Bahrain as a forward base
  - USN mine warfare ships continue to be permanently forward deployed in Bahrain
  - USN patrol Coastals (PCs) now permanently forward deployed in Bahrain (from 2003)
    - 1st 2 PCs permanently forward deployed (Feb 2003)
    - Crews rotated on forward deployed PCs (from Aug 2003)
    - 2 more PCs permanently forward deployed (2004)
    - 5th PC permanently forward deployed (2006)
  - Security concerns barred USN dependents from Bahrain (2004-8)
  - Bahrain opened Mina Khalifa CVN-capable pier (2009)
  - Major expansion of NSA Bahrain began, including Mina Salman port development (2010)

2000s: US Navy basing (XI)

- Major Navy Europe changes
  - NAVEUR London HQ moved to Naples (2005)
  - NAS Keflavik closed (2006)
  - NSA La Maddalena (Sardinia) closed (2007)
  - NSA Gaeta Monte Orlando compound closed (2009)
  - JMF St. Mawgan (last USN UK base) closed (2009)
- Search for forward Mediterranean homeports for USN missile defense cruisers & destroyers (from 2010)
2000s: US Navy basing (XII)

- USN FOL (later CSL) Comalpa (El Salvador) established (2000)
  - VP also flew from FOL Manta (Ecuador) (till 2009)
- JTF GTMO enemy combatant detainee camps established at NAVSTA Guantanamo Bay (2002)
  - USN manning (since 2005)
  - USN command (since 2006)
- Vieques Island Puerto Rico Atlantic Fleet Weapons Training Facility (AFWTF) closed, after local protests (2003)
- USN gained access to two Colombian naval bases (2009)
  - US-Colombia Defense Cooperation Agreement

2000s: US Navy basing changes
2000s: State of the Navy: Military sealift (I)

- By law & US government policy (NSD 28, Maritime Security Program – MSP), USTRANSCOM, MSC, & SDDC must 1st look to private US flag ships to meet sealift requirements, before using government-owned fleet
- Most DOD dry cargo transported in containers on regularly-scheduled US commercial vessels
  - USTRANSCOM contracts; US Army SDDC coordination
- Reduced use of foreign ships for US military sealift

2000s: State of the Navy: Military sealift (II)

- Robust & stable MSC nucleus fleet
  - For surge & sustainment military sealift & prepositioning
    - Large US government RoRo fleet for surge
    - Large available private US containership fleet for sustainment
  - Government-owned (USNS)/chartered (MV) sealift ships, prepositioning ships, DOT MARAD NDRF RRF ships (SS, MV)
  - Sealift ships 2000: 17  2010: 19
  - Prepositioning ships 2000: 37  2010: 32
    - Afloat storage of USMC, US Army & USAF gear for surge in crises & sustainment
    - USMC, Army, MSC leasing & charter of high speed vessels (HSV)
  - Included new /converted LMSRs for surge
  - Civilian mariner (CIVMAR) and contracted mariner (CONMAR) crews
2000s: State of the Navy: Military sealift (III)

- MSC sealift fleet (2010)
  - Tankers: 5
  - Dry cargo ships: 4
  - Large, Medium-Speed Roll/On/Roll-Off (LMSR): 10
  - Plus additional short-term chartered sealift ships

- MSC Prepositioning Force fleet (2010)
  - Maritime Prepositioning Force ships ISO USMC: 16
  - Army Prepositioning Stocks Ships: 8
  - USAF, USN, DLA ships: 8
  - Most ships US-government-owned
    - Some on long-term civilian charter

2000s: State of the Navy: Military sealift (IV)

- MSC commander rank = VADM
  - Often assigned as RADM & promoted while in the job
  - (SECDEF “Track Four Efficiency Initiatives Decisions” memorandum downgraded billet to RADM (Mar 2011))

- New USN, USMC, US Army joint seabasing concepts developed, debated. Some implemented
  - MPF(F) family of ships planned, debated, approved & then cancelled
  - MPF(F) program replaced by adding reduced-capability Mobile Landing Platforms (MLPs) & T-AKEs to MPSRONs

- 8 SL-7 Fast Sealift Ships (FSS) transferred from MSC to DOT MARAD NDRF RRF (2007-8)
- Transfer of 3 LMSRs to support USMC vice US Army requirements (2008-11)
  - 1 for each MPSRON
  - Akin to MPF(E) program of 1990s
2000s: State of the Navy: Military sealift (V)

❖ Army, Navy, Marine Corps use of high speed vessels for tactical sealift
  ❖ USMC: MV Westpac Express (HSV-4676) (MSC charter from 2001)
  ❖ Army & Navy jointly leased Australian catamaran Joint Venture (HSV-X1) (2001-5)
  ❖ Army leased USAV Spearhead (TSV-X1) (2002-5)
  ❖ USN leased HSV-2 Swift (from 2003)
  ❖ Joint Army-Navy program to build Joint High Speed Vessels (JHSV) (from 2008)
  ❖ MPS USNS GySgt. Fred W. Stockham (T-AK-3017) supported counter-terrorism operations in Operation Enduring Freedom (Philippines)

2000s: State of the Navy: Military sealift (VI)

❖ DOD mobility studies (I)
  ❖ Mobility Requirements Study – 2005 (MRS-05) (2001)
    ❖ Recent sealift investments seen as sufficient
    ❖ Programmed organic dry cargo fleet seen as adequate
    ❖ Recommended aggressive use of commercial sealift enabled by selective containerization of unit equipment
  ❖ Mobility Capabilities Study (MCS) (2005)
    ❖ Found current sealift & prepositioning ship inventory sufficient
2000s: State of the Navy: Military sealift (VII)

- DOD mobility studies (II)
  - OSD-USTRANSCOM Mobility Capabilities and Requirements Study (MCRS) 2016 (Feb 2010)
    - Found US surge sealift & prepositioning ship capabilities "largely satisfactory"
    - Identified lack of sufficient potential foreign infrastructure to support US major force deployments as critical constraint
    - Joint Logistics Over the Shore (JLOTS) assets, Joint High Speed Vessels (JHSV), Offshore Petroleum Discharge System seen as critical enablers

2000s: State of the Navy: Military sealift (VIII)

- Increasing use of U.S.-flag commercial hulls for military sealift over the decade
  - Operation Iraqi Freedom (OIF)
    - MSC fleet provided bulk of initial sealift; MSP enabled private commercial US-flag participation
    - USNS LMSRs for surge sealift: Over 44%
    - Other MSC sealift ships: About 25%
    - MSC-chartered US flag merchant ships: 13%
    - MSC foreign charters: 13%
  - % of US military cargo to Iraq & Afghanistan carried by US-flag commercial vessels
    - 57% (2002-8) 95% (2009-10)
  - Continued MSC sealift participation in US Korea contingency reinforcement exercises
2000s: State of the Navy: Military sealift (IX)

- Department of Transportation (DOT) Maritime Administration (MARAD) National Defense Reserve Fleet (NDRF)
- Total MARAD NDRF ship #s dropped
- Government-owned NDRF Ready Reserve Force (RRF) ship #s dropped
  - 2000: 90  2004: 60  Sep 2010: 49
- MARAD-USTRANSCOM agreement re: Use of RRF ships (2008)
  - To respond to civil emergencies at home
  - To conduct defense sealift & humanitarian ops overseas

2000s: State of the Navy: Military sealift (X)

- DOT MARAD NDRF RRF ships activated 91 times (2002-2010)
  - 40 RRF ships activated for OEF & OIF
  - 1st RRF activations ISO Dept. of Transportation
    - For Hurricanes Katrina, Rita Disaster Response ops (2005)
  - 7 RRF ships activated to support Haiti earthquake relief effort (2010)
    - Several not actually used, however
    - Included 2 former Hawaii high-speed ferries
- RRF continued to depend on availability of American merchant mariners to crew ships
  - MARAD Administrator-SECNAV MOA allowed use of USNR Merchant Marine Reserve Officers to mitigate shortfalls
MSC non-sealift Naval Fleet Auxiliary Force (NFAF) & Special Mission fleet continued to grow

- 42 NFAF ships (as of 2010)
  - All Government-owned/government-civilian (CIVMAR) - operated
  - For sustainment of USN combatant fleet
  - Now included fast combat support ships, command ships; salvage ships; some w/ commercial civilian VERTREP capability

- 25 Special Mission ships (as of 2010)
  - Some gov't owned; some chartered
  - Often manned by contracted civilian mariners (CONMARs)
  - Now included submarine tenders

Outnumbered MSC sealift & prepositioning fleets

- 32 Prepositioning Ships (as of 2010)
- 19 Sealift ships (as of 2010)

Placed under new Military Sealift Fleet Support Command (MSFSC) in Norfolk (2005)

- COMSC now USN TYCOM under CFFC (vice CNO)

Increased organic US military force protection for sealift, other MSC ships

- OPERATION GUARDIAN MARINER (2003-4)
  - Puerto Rico ANG 92nd Separate Infantry Brigade security dets
  - On USN strategic sealift ships during OIF
  - Also some USMC detachments

- OPERATION VIGILANT MARINER (OVM) (2004- )
  - USN Embarked Security Teams (EST) (2004-7)
  - Expanded to include all MSC ships
2000s: US-flag Merchant Marine (I)

- Private commercial US-flag foreign trade shipping not viable w/o significant US government assist
- Private US-flag foreign trade Merchant Marine
  - Continued its decline
  - Small fleet by world standards
  - Ocean-going ships (1000 gross tons & over)
    - 2000: 461 2006: 344
  - Continued to carry only 2% of world tonnage
  - Carried less than 4% of US international trade
  - Many ships not suited for military use
    - E.g.: Containerships; large bulk carriers

2000s: US-flag Merchant Marine (II)

- International shipping tonnage to and from US ports continued to surpass domestic shipping tonnage
- Military Cargo Preference Act of 1904 in force
  - Only US-flag ships can carry US-owned military items
- Jones Act (1920) in force
  - Only US-flag ships can carry cargoes between US ports
  - Continued to sustain private domestic fleet (97 ships in 2010)
  - Re-codified by Congress, President (2006)
  - Unsuccessful attempt by SEN John McCain (R-AZ), others to repeal Jones Act (2010)
    - Press reported US Navy opposition to repeal
- Cargo Preference Act of 1954 in force
  - Private US-flag ships must carry 50-75% of US government-sponsored cargoes, e.g.: food aid
2000s: US-flag Merchant Marine (III)

- 785 other US-owned merchant ships registered in other countries
  - 68 listed by MARAD as EUSC (2006)
  - Large fleet by world standards
  - Part of global trend towards “flag of convenience” registrations

- Bush administration American Jobs Creation Act (AJCA) reversed previous policy (2004)
  - Restored tax deferral of shipping income
    - Had been ended by Reagan-era Tax Reform Act (1986)
2000s: US-flag Merchant Marine (V)

- Voluntary Inter-modal Sealift Agreement (VISA) & Maritime Security Program (MSP) continued
  - To assure DOD emergency access in exchange for subsidies & cargo preference
  - To help retain US merchant mariner labor base
  - MSP subsidized US commercial fleet (2007):
    - 40 containerships; 14 RO/ROs; 2 heavy lift ships
    - 1 LASH vessel; 3 product tankers
    - 60 of 94 US-flag foreign trade ships received MSP subsidies (2010)
  - Most US-flag dry cargo ships are enrolled

  - Enables US tanker owners, operators to volunteer ships for contingencies; & gov’t planners to plan on them

2000s: US-flag Merchant Marine (VI)

- Maritime Domain Awareness (MDA)
  - New post-9/11 Merchant Marine non-sealift mission
  - Occasioned by concerns over seaborne terrorism
  - Commercial fleets seen as additional global maritime eyes & ears
  - International Maritime Organization (IMO) mandated Automatic Identification Systems (AIS) on all merchant vessels over 300 gross tons (2002)
  - Commercial carriers integral to USN “1000 Ship Navy” & “Global Maritime Partnership” initiatives
  - US government-sponsored Maersk, Lockheed Martin container ship “black box” data collection projects (from 2007-8)
World shipbuilding orders increased across the decade, plummeted in 2009, up again in 2010
- China overtook Japan & closing on South Korea as world’s #1 shipbuilder (by tonnage; not value) (2010)
- US commercial shipbuilding = 1% of world total
- Annual USN warship & US Merchant Marine ocean-going shipbuilding each down to single digits
- US shipbuilding industry largely dependent on US Navy orders
  - Building few commercial ocean-going ships
- Most new US-built commercial ships had little military utility
- NASSCO, Aker, Avondale, VT Halter building US ocean-going Merchant Marine ships
2000s: US government shipbuilding policies

- No US government ship construction subsidies
- US shipbuilding industry received negligible US government economic stimulus funding (2008-9)
- Federal Ship Financing Guarantee Program in place
- USN issues with private US shipbuilders
  - Cost overruns (esp. initial LCSs)
  - Workmanship (esp. San Antonio-class LPDs)
- US private shipbuilders issues with USN
  - MSC long-term foreign ship-charters seen as circumventing US laws to build US naval ships only in US shipyards
- Jones Act (1920) continued in force.
  - Sea trade between US ports must be in US-built ships
- Federal post-Deepwater Oil Spill drilling moratorium hurt Gulf Coast shipbuilders (May-Oct 2010)

2000s: US government naval shipyards

- 5th Base Realignment and Closure (BRAC) round did not close any government-owned & operated US naval shipyards (2005)
- # of US naval shipyards stayed at 4
  - Norfolk (Portsmouth VA)
  - Pearl Harbor (HI)
  - Portsmouth (Kittery ME)
  - Puget Sound (Bremerton WA)
2000s: US government naval shipyards

- US private naval shipbuilding (I)
  - “Big Six” private naval shipyards further consolidated under only 2 companies
    - Litton (Ingalls, Avondale) & Newport News to Northrop Grumman (2001)
      - Gulf Coast shipbuilders in pain
      - Ingalls badly damaged by Hurricane Katrina (2005)
      - Northrop Grumman announced 2013 closure of Avondale; possible sale of Ingalls & Newport News (Jul 2010)
    - Bath, EB, NASSCO continued under General Dynamics
    - US private naval shipyard employment increased somewhat
2000s: US private naval shipbuilding (II)

- Low production volume made technology upgrades difficult, compared to foreign shipbuilders
- US Navy provided & expanded investment support to all six shipyards, across the decade
- At least three major USN shipbuilding success stories:
  - General Dynamics Electric Boat yard & Northrop Grumman Newport News yard
    - Virginia-class SSNs
  - General Dynamics NASSCO yard
    - Lewis and Clark-class T-AKEs, LMSRs
- At least one major USN shipbuilding cautionary tale:
  - Northrop Grumman Avondale yard
    - Shoddy work on San Antonio-class LPDs

2000s: US private naval shipbuilding (III)

- Two civilian mid-sized shipbuilders constructed smaller US Navy ships (including LCS, from 2005)
  - Marinette Marine (Marinette WI)
    - Owned by Italian shipbuilder Fincantieri
  - Austal USA (Mobile AL)
    - Owned by Australian shipbuilder Austal
- Numerous small US shipyards built small ships & craft for US, allies, partners
  - 40 US boat builders built 1300 naval boats & craft during decade
    - Included patrol boats & craft, riverine craft, rigid hull inflatable boats (RHIBs), etc.
2010: Major US private naval shipyards

- Bath Iron Works (GD)
  - Bath ME
  - Surface combatants
- Electric Boat (GD)
  - Quonset Point RI
  - Groton CT
  - Submarines
- Marinette Marine Corporation
  - Marinette WI
  - Smaller surface ships
- NASSCO (GD)
  - San Diego CA
  - Auxiliary Ships
- Newport News (NG)
  - Newport News VA
  - Submarines, aircraft carriers
- Gulf Coast (NG)
  - New Orleans LA
  - Pascagoula MS
  - Auxiliary ships, surface combatants, amphibious ships
- Austal USA
  - Mobile AL
  - Smaller surface ships
- VT Halter
  - Pascagoula MS
  - Auxiliary ships

- Major Shipyard; • = Mid-sized Shipyard;

NG = Northrop Grumman Shipbuilding; GD = General Dynamics

2000s: USN-USMC relations

!Seal of the US Navy and US Marine Corps
2000s: USN-USMC relations

- USN-USMC relations improved over 1990s
  - Continued operational cooperation
  - Good personal CNO-CMC relations
  - USN accepted USMC commanders at sea
  - Collaboration on many “capstone” & concept documents
  - Joint HQMC/OPNAV approach to Quadrennial Defense Review (QDR) 2010
- USMC focused on ground wars & counter-insurgency in Iraq and Afghanistan, & restructuring posture in the Pacific

2000s: Operations

♦ Reduced number/scale/distribution of USN-USMC amphibious operations (vs. 1990s)
  ♦ Focus on Afghanistan/Iraq combat ops
  ♦ Also Arabian Sea maritime security ops (MSO)
  ♦ Humanitarian assistance/ disaster relief ops
    ♦ Esp. East Timor, New Orleans, Pakistan, Sumatra, Bangladesh, Haiti
  ♦ Few NEOs, peace ops, shows of force

2000s: Operations

♦ USN tactical support for USMC in OEF & OIF
  ♦ LHDs Bataan & Bonhomme Richard operated as “Harrier carriers” in OIF (2003)
  ♦ Joint Task Force Horn of Africa (JTF HOA)
  ♦ Established under USMC command (Nov 2002)
    ♦ Initial focus on fighting terrorism
    ♦ Established by MARCENT at Camp Lejeune NC (2002)
    ♦ Operated from USS Mount Whitney (LCC-2) (2002-3)
    ♦ Moved ashore to Camp Lemonnier, Djibouti (May 2003)
  ♦ Transitioned to USN command (Apr 2006)
    ♦ Focus shifted to sustained security engagement
2000s: USMC commanders at sea

- USN accepted USMC commanders at sea
  - COMUSNAVCENT VADM Moore designated BGen Mattis to command NAVCENT NETF 58 in OEF (2001)
    - Essentially 2 ARGs/MEU(SOC)s, at sea & then ashore in Pakistan & Afghanistan
  - Marines commanded some new Expeditionary Strike Groups (ESGs) (2002)
    - BGen Medina commanded ESG 3 (2004)
  - Marine colonel commanded TG 60.5 (USS Emory S. Land Gulf of Guinea deployment) (2005)

2000s: New maritime security concepts, ops

- USMC Security Cooperation MAGTF (SCMAGTF)
  - Concept & capabilities developed (from 2007)
  - 1st SCMAGTF deployed on USS Wasp (LHD 1) to USOUTHCOM AOR (2009)
- USMC Training & Advisor Group stood up (2007)
  - Support for MARFORSOUTH, MARFORAFRICA
  - Deployed as part of USN-led Global Fleet Stations
    - NAVSOUTH Southern Partnership Stations
    - NAVEUR & NAVAFRICOM Africa Partnership Stations
- Marines deployed on USS Farragut as trainers in USOUTHCOM (2008)
- Imaginative USN use of “empty” amphibious ships for maritime security operations (MSO), engagement, & humanitarian assistance/disaster relief (HA/DR)
2000s: Coastal & riverine warfare

- USCG PSU TRADET at Camp Lejeune renamed Special Missions Training Center (SMTC) (2002)
- USN established TRADET at SMTC (2003)
- USMC established Small Boat Training Detachment (SBTD) at SMTC (2004)
- USMC announced disestablishment of riverine-capable Small Craft Company (SCC) (2005)
- SMTC USN TRADET & USMC SBTD surged to train new USN riverine force (2006-8)
- USMC passed OIF Iraq river ops to USN (2007)
- Tri-service USCG-run SMTC at Camp Lejeune renamed Joint Maritime Training Center (JMTC) (2008)

2000s: Amphibious, COIN, presence issues

- USMC focused on OEF/OIF ground combat/counter-insurgency (COIN)
  - Post 9/11/2001 Al Qaeda attacks on America
  - Reduced afloat MEU(SOC) presence
  - Degraded USMC amphibious assault competency
  - Minimal non-amphibious ship afloat presence, but some steps to reverse this
  - Intense USMC collaboration (& competition) w/ Army re: COIN doctrine, TTP, training, ops
    - In Iraq, Afghanistan, elsewhere
  - Some USMC general officer retiree participation in “revolt of the generals” (c. 2006)
- Realignment of USMC forces in the Pacific
  - Including draw-down on Okinawa; build-up on Guam
2000s: USMC on USN ships

- MEU Detachment in USN TF 151 anti-piracy ops (2009)
- Deploying MEUs again trained in non-compliant Visit Board, Search & Seizure (VBSS) (from 2009)
  - Included anti-piracy ops
  - USN HH-60S helo support (from 2010)

2000s: USMC on USN ships and bases

- Marines no longer responsible for most USN base or ship security
  - USMC passed USNA sentry duty to USN (2006)
    - 2 permanent USMC Security Battalions: Kings Bay, Bangor
    - 3 rapidly deployable USMC Fleet Anti-terrorism Security Team (FAST) companies
2000s: Increased USMC autonomy & status

- USMC continued to acquire attributes of an autonomous & co-equal military service
  - 1st USMC Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff (CJCS) (2005-7)
  - 1st 2 USMC Vice Chairmen, Joint Chiefs of Staff (VCJCS)
  - USMC general officers routinely assigned as Combatant Commanders, including new roles as COMUSSTRATCOM & COMUSEUCOM
  - USMC stood up SOCCOM MARSOC component (2006)
  - Marine Corps University Journal (Spring 2010)
- Bush Admin. decision to increase USMC (by 27,000) to 202,000 active Marines, by 2011 (2007).
  - While USN active end strength continued to drop

2000s: Increased USN-USMC integration

- USN subsumed ARGs under new ESGs (2002-2009)
  - Included surface combatants (SCs) & attack submarines (SSNs) as well as amphibious ships and their Marines
  - But ESG concept generally abandoned in 2009
    - SCs & SSNs had not operated closely w/ ARG/MEU (SOC)s
- Navy/Marine Corps Intranet (NMCI) implemented (from 2000)
  - Domains still separate, however
  - Planning for Next Generation Enterprise Network (NGEN)
- USN-USMC Naval Logistics Integration (NLI) program (from 2003)
  - Codified in SECNAVINST 4000.37 31 Dec 2007
  - Goal: Integrated (vice merely interoperable) USN & USMC logistics processes & technologies
2000s: Tactical air integration

- Navy-Marine Corps Tactical Air Integration (TAI) plan (2002)
  - Reduced total numbers of DON F/A-18s & F-35s
  - Assigned USN squadrons to USMC units & USMC squadrons to Carrier Air Wings
  - 1st Carrier Air Wing commanded by a Marine aviator (2006)
  - 1st Marine Air Group (MAG) commanded by USN aviator (2007)
- Implementation stalled by OEF, OIF ops

2000s: Ships, craft & aircraft

- Continued USMC commitment to LCAC, MV-22, EFV (renamed from AAAV 2003)
  - MV-22 aircraft deployments on USN amphibious ships (from May 2009)
- USN-USMC-USAF co-development of F-35 Joint Strike Fighter (JSF) aircraft variants
- LHA-6 & LHA-7 being built without well decks
  - To accommodate MV-22 & FV-35B space requirements
- Amphib % of USN Ship Battle Force still stable
  - 1960s: 15%  1970s: 13%  1980s: 11%
  - 1990s: 11%  2000s: 12%
2000s: USN amphibious ships/USMC goals

- No new “DON Lift study” since 1990
- # of amphibious ships cut by 1/5 during the decade
- Both actual lift capacity & USMC goals continued to be reduced
- USMC lift goals increasingly focused on amphibious ship numbers
- 2 levels of USMC lift goals
  - “Operational requirements”
  - “Programmatic goals”
- USMC seabasing concept drove desire for new MPF(F) lift in addition to amphibious ships

2000s: Continuing USN-USMC issues (I)

- Co-equality of USN & USMC within DON
- USMC pull on DON resources
  - USMC = 17% of DON TOA; 5% of DOD TOA
- Amphibious ship #s in Navy shipbuilding plan
- Amphibious ship designs & construction
  - Perennial USN concerns at increased USMC weight requirements
  - Shoddy construction of San Antonio-class LPDs
  - Follow-on LHAs: w/ or w/o well-decks
- USN-USMC Visit, Board, Search & Seizure (VBSS) division of responsibilities

2000s: Continuing USN-USMC issues (II)

- USMC aircraft force levels, carrier deployments
  - OEF & OIF ops cause major perturbations in Tactical Air Integration (TAI) Plan
  - USMC to procure only F-35B short take-off vertical landing (STOVL) model, not USN F-35C model
- Navy surface fire support
  - USN canceled Extended Range Guided Munition (ERGM); truncated DDG-1000 program (2008)
  - Joint expeditionary fires Analysis of Alternatives (AOA) (2008)
2000s: Continuing USN-USMC issues (III)

- MPF(F) Seabasing differences
  - USMC viewed MPF(F) as new added USN requirement
  - USN viewed MPF(F) as competing with amphibious ships for limited USN USMC-support
  - MPF(F) characteristics, cost differences
- Command of USMC afloat forces
  - CATF/CLF relationships vs. Supporting/supported relationships
  - Especially in large-scale conflicts

---

2000s: Staff issues

- Formal USN-USMC “Warfighter Talks” program
- Annual drive in Congress by Rep. Walter Jones (R-NC) to rename DON “Department of the Navy and Marine Corps” (since 2001)
  - Unsuccessful (as of 2010)
- Sporadic assignment of USMC officers to OPNAV Strategy & Policy Division (N51)
- Continued simultaneous USMC development of single-service vision, concept, strategy & doctrine pubs, alongside heavily-USMC-influenced USN-USMC-USCG “naval” pubs
2000s: SECDEF Gates 2010 challenge

We have to take a hard look at where it would be necessary or sensible to launch another major amphibious landing again – especially as advances in anti-ship systems keep pushing the potential launch point further from shore. On a more basic level, in the 21st century, what kind of amphibious capability do we really need to deal with the most likely scenarios, and then how much?

SECDEF Robert Gates speech
Navy League Sea-Air-Space Exposition
3 May 2010

2000s: Joint amphibious doctrine

- Joint Doctrine for Amphibious Operations (Joint Pub 3-02) updated twice within the decade
    - Updated command relationships
  - Newer edition re-titled Amphibious Operations (2009)
    - Brought discussion of amphibious ops in line with other joint doctrine
2000s: USN-USMC concept collaboration

- Co-signed USN-USMC concept documents
  - CNO & CMC, FORCEnet Concept (Feb 2005)
  - Operational-level doctrine

2000s: USMC intellectual institutions

- MCCDC (at Quantico VA) continued as font of USMC strategy, concepts & doctrine
- USMC & Potomac Institute set up Center for Emerging Threats & Opportunities (CETO) (2001)
  - At Marine Corps Warfighting Laboratory (MCWL), Quantico
  - To identify potential operational challenges & solutions
2000s: Documenting USMC thought

- Continued internal USMC strategy, concept & doctrine development (I)
  - CMC Gen Jones, Expeditionary Maneuver Warfare Marine Corps Capstone Concept (Nov 2001)

- Continued internal USMC strategy, concept & doctrine development (II)
    - Focus on 6 USMC “core competencies”, vice 6 “sea service capabilities” listed in A Cooperative Strategy for 21st Century Seapower
    - No reference to or discussion of A Cooperative Strategy for 21st Century Seapower
2000s: Documenting USMC thought

- Continued internal USMC strategy, concept & doctrine development (III)
  - Deputy Commandant for Combat Development and Integration (DC, CD&I) LtGen Amos, USMC Expeditionary Maneuver from the Sea: The Capstone Operational Concept (Jun 2008)

2000s: Documenting USMC thought

- Continued internal USMC strategy, concept & doctrine development (IV)
  - MCCDC supporting concept papers
    - Concept for Interagency Campaign Design (May 2007)
    - Evolving the MAGTF for the 21st Century (Mar 2009)
    - Seabasing for the Range of Military Operations (Mar 2009)

CMCs & CNOs co-signed bolded pubs above

2000s: USMC in USN “capstone” documents

USN-USMC capstone document collaboration became routine again (from 2003)

Important role of MCCDC staff member Col Doug King; had previously served in OPNAV N513

USCG participation also now routine (from 2007)
Some in USN resented continued simultaneous development of plethora of USMC-only vision, concept, strategy & doctrine pubs, alongside USMC-influenced USN-USMC-USCG “naval” pubs

Some in USMC resented this USN attitude; encouraged USN to write its own USN-only concepts

Some in USMC resented series of USN-only strategic guidance documents for resource allocation

2000s: USN-USCG relations (I)

- US government responses to 9/11/2001 attacks revolutionized USN-USCG relationships
- USN-USCG Maritime Defense Zone (MARDEZ) plans ignored on 9/11
  - Instead, USN CNO offered support to USCG
  - MARDEZ concept still on some books but essentially defunct
- Continued USCGC, WPB, PSU joint war plan roles
- Routine formal Navy-Coast Guard “Leadership,” later “Warfighter,” Talks
  (replaced NAVGARD Board)
2000s: USN-USCG relations (II)

- The post-9/11 Coast Guard
  - USCG budget ramped up as responsibilities grew
  - USCG manning grew post 9/11; USN declined
  - New homeland security & defense concepts
  - New agencies & inter-governmental organizations
  - But 1st post-9/11 cut (FY 11) in USCG end strength (2010)

2000s: USN-USCG relations (III)

- Extensive & growing USCG cooperation with Chinese maritime agencies
  - Maritime safety & security, search & rescue (SAR), engagement missions
    - USN participation in USCG-PRC SAREXs
  - USCG inspection in China of China-built USCG-certified vessels, life boats, davits
  - Fisheries agreement enforcement cooperation
    - Included at-sea combined boarding teams from USCG cutters
  - Sharing of port security data to facilitate commerce
  - USCG cutter Qingdao port visit (2006)
2000s: USN-USCG relations (IV)

  - USCG International Port Security Liaison Officers (IPSLOs) assigned in foreign ports
- USCG moved from Department of Transportation (DOT) to new Department of Homeland Security (DHS) (2003)

2000s: USN-USCG relations (V)

- President’s Interagency Task Force on U.S. Coast Guard Roles and Missions, The U.S. Coast Guard of the 21st Century (Jan 2000)
  - Addressed ship, aircraft, C4ISR cooperation
  - Still in force in 2010, but seldom referred to or used
- COMDT COGARD published
  - Coast Guard Pub 1 as 1st doctrinal handbook (2002)
  - DOD-like USCG “Posture Statement” (2008)
  - Revised Coast Guard Pub 1: U.S. Coast Guard: America’s Maritime Guardian (May 2009)
2000s: USN-USCG relations (VI)

- COMDT COGARD & staff participated fully to develop tri-service “Naval Service” documents
  - “Conversations with the Country” flag officer participation
  - Coordinated HASC testimony (Dec 2007)
  - Naval Operations Concept (NOC) (2010)
  - NDP 1 Naval Warfare (2010)
- USN-USCG coordination issue areas (2010)
  - Cryptologic operational concept
  - Sector Command Centers
  - Naval Operations concept (NOC) 2010
  - Arctic policy & communications
  - Maritime Operations Centers (MOC)
  - Unmanned aerial vehicles (UAVs)

2000s: USN-USCG relations (VII)

- DOD-DHS Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) formalizing USCG national defense capabilities (May 2008)
  - Updated 1995 MOU
  - Identified 8 areas where Coast Guard supports DOD
    - Maritime interdiction operations
    - Combating maritime terrorism
    - Port operations security & defense
    - Military environmental response operations
    - Coastal sea control operations
    - Maritime operational threat response (MOTR)
    - Rotary wing air intercept operations
    - Support for theater security cooperation initiatives
USCG Noble Eagle ops after 9/11 attacks

USN-USCG created 4 Joint Harbor Operations Centers (JHOCs) after 9/11 attacks
- NORVA pilot (Nov 2001)
- Became Sector Command Centers-Joint (SCC-Js) (2006)

USCG created Deployable Operations Group (DOG), to put all USCG deployable specialized forces into a single command (2007)
- To standardize, improve responsiveness of USCG LEDETS, PSUs, MSSTs, etc.

Maritime Force Protection Units (MFPUs) created (2007)
- USCG manned; USN funded
- For USN SSBN homeport ingress & egress security at Kings Bay GA and Bangor WA naval bases

Operation Iraqi Freedom (OIF) (2003-):
- USCG cutters, WPBs, buoy tender, Port Security Units (PSUs), Law Enforcement Detachments (LEDETs), Maritime Safety & Security Teams (MSST), deployed forward in-theater under USN commands
- USCG provided outload security in CONUS ports
- 1st USCG PSU to be embedded in USN N. Arabian Gulf Maritime Expeditionary Squadron (MSRON) (2009)
- PSUs provided security for Kuwait port, naval base
- Patrol Forces Southwest Asia (PATFORSWA)
  - CTG 55.6 under USCG commander
  - Six USCG patrol boats; 5 USN PCs
  - To protect Iraqi offshore terminals
  - To train Iraqi forces to take over mission
  - To conduct other theater security cooperation ops
2000s: USN-USCG relations (X)

- USN-USCG counter-drug ops continued
  - Continued LEDET embarkations on USN warships
- USCG flag officer Directors of:
  - SOUTHCOM JIATF East (became JIATF South 2003)
  - PACOM JIATF West (moved to Hawaii 2004)
- USCG HITRON crews in USN helos (from 2005)
- USN-USCG Florida Strait blimp tests (2008)
- Drug Trafficking Vessel Interdiction Act (2008)
  - Allowed USCG to detain, prosecute suspected drug traffickers using semi-submersibles

2000s: USN-USCG relations (XI)

- New US interagency Maritime Domain Awareness (MDA) offices established (2006-7)
  - Global Maritime & Air Intelligence Integration (GMAII)
    - Established Jul 2006 in ODNI
    - Head: USCG Flag officer; Location: McLean VA
  - Global Maritime Situational Awareness (GMSA)
    - Established Aug 2007 under DHS oversight
    - Head: USN Flag officer; Deputy: USCG civilian; Location: USCG HQ
Continued limited routine USCGC forward deployments ISO CCDRs & USN NCCs

- USCGC in Operation Assured Delivery to Georgia (2008)
- USCG LEDET in CTF 151 anti-piracy ops (from Jan 2009)
- USCGCs integrated into some deploying CSGs & ESGs
- CNE/C6F used USCG WHEC for 1st Libya PVST (2009)
- USCG participation in joint & combined exercises
  - E.g.: RIMPAC, CARAT

- Decommissioned. Neither USCG nor USN would continue funding (2006)
- Role picked up by USN LATAM Global Fleet Station deployments, w/ USCG participation

Subsequently, USCG cutters & LEDETS routinely integrated into new USN “Global Fleet Station” (GFS) deployments (APS, SPS, POA, etc.) (from 2007)

USCG participation in USS Freedom (LCS 1) Caribbean drug ops & security cooperation deployment (2010)
2000s: USN-USCG relations (XIV)

- Operation Persistent Presence (from 2009)
  - USCG Fisheries Enforcement LEDETs on transiting USN Pacific Fleet FFGs
- Operation Podium (2010)
  - Maritime security for Vancouver Winter Olympics
  - USN, USCG, Canadian Navy, Royal Canadian Mounted Police
- USN-USCG cooperation in Haiti earthquake aftermath humanitarian ops (2010)
  - USCG cutters as 1st responders
  - USN amphibious ships, hospital ship, carrier arrived soon thereafter

2000s: USN-USCG relations (XV)

- Deepwater Horizon Gulf oil spill disaster cooperation (2010)
- Natsiq combined Arctic exercise (2010)
  - USCG, USN, Canadian Navy & Coast Guard, Royal Danish Navy
2000s: USN-USCG relations (XVI)

- USCG PSU TRADET at USMC Camp Lejeune (from 1998) renamed Special Missions Training Center (SMTC) (2002)
- USN established TRADET at SMTC (2003)
- USMC established Small Boat Training Det (SBTD) at SMTC (2004)
- SMTC USN TRADET & USMC SBTD surged to train new USN riverine force (2006-8)
- Tri-service USCG-run SMTC at Camp Lejeune renamed Joint Maritime Training Center (JMTC) (2008)
  - USCG-USN-USMC small boat, port security, riverine combat, noncompliant vessel pursuit courses

2000s: USN-USCG relations (XVII)

  - US interagency coordination guidance for cases & situations
  - Global MOTR Coordination Center (GMCC) (2010)
    - MOTR executive secretariat & national coordinator
    - Funded by DHS/USCG
- CNO-COMDT COGARD MOA integrated USCG into USN “Safe Harbor” program (2009)
  - To coordinate lifetime non-medical care of wounded, ill, injured Sailors, Coastguardsmen, & families
- 1st Coastguardsmen in USN SEAL training (2009), teams (2010)
  - USN paid for training, gear
2000s: USN-USCG relations (XVIII)

- Ongoing major USCG “Deepwater” force modernization & replacement program
- Legend-class National Security Cutter (NSC)
  - Issue debated: Common hull for USN Littoral Combat Ship (LCS), USCG National Security Cutter (NSC)
  - Decision made: No common hull
  - NSCs designed to be USN Carrier Strike Group (CSG)-capable
  - Some USN features, e.g.:
    - Mk 110 57 mm naval gun (same as on USN Zumwalt-class destroyers & on LCS)
    - Collective Protection System (CPS) in case of chemical, biological or radiation (CBR) attack
  - 1st NSC commissioned (2008); Eight planned
- Sentinel-class Fast Response Cutter (FRC)
  - Keel-laying for initial cutter (2010)
  - C4ISR suite interoperable with USN

2000s: USN-USCG relations (XIX)

- Some USN funding of USCG defense hardware
  - But USCG bought 1st 4 MK 57 mm guns for NSCs
- USCG began to acquire retired early-model USN MH-60 helicopters (from 2010)
- USCG interest in USN MQ-8B Fire Scout unmanned aerial vehicle (UAV) (from 2009)
2000s: USN-USCG relations

- Evolving USN/SOCOM –USCG Patrol Coastal (PC) relationships
  - All PCs TACON to USCG off CONUS (2002-3)
  - USN crews; USCG LEDETs
  - 4 PCs leased to USCG (USN maintained) (2004)
  - 5th PC leased to USCG (2005)
  - Leased PCs operated out of Pascagoula, Mississippi
  - USCG returned 2 PCs to USN (2008)
  - USCG returned remaining 3 PCs to USN (2011)
- PCs as Coast Guard counter-drug & law enforcement platforms: Pros & cons
  - Pros: High speeds, large crews
  - Cons: Limited endurance, no flight deck, inability to tow large vessels

2000s: USN-USAF Relations
USN and USAF achieved unprecedented levels of cooperation and integration

Closer relations aided by

- Navy acceptance that it can’t – and will not be tasked to – do everything maritime and littoral by itself
- USAF humility in the face of criticisms of its record across the decade, and recognition that it probably will never be tasked to win a war mostly by itself
- USN-USAF convergence of interest re: future primary US warfighting concepts, especially vis-à-vis:
  - Current ground war priorities and Counter-Insurgency (COIN) concept focus, in the Middle East, pursued by U.S. Army, others
  - Emerging peer competitors, especially in the Pacific
- Outside pressures, e.g., Base Realignment and Closure Commission (BRAC)

Commonality of USN and USAF experience supporting ongoing Southwest Asia ground-centric COIN ops helped forge commonality of outlook and interest

Rise of China and People’s Liberation Army Navy (PLAN) – as well as continued development of Iranian capabilities – sparked renewed interest in both services in air defense, sea control, and counter-sea operations and capabilities

Decade ended with development of a classified USN-USAF-USMC “Air-Sea Battle concept”

- Directed by SECDEF
- Staffed and approved by service staffs

Evolving world situation put a premium on USN-USAF counters to others’ Anti-Access/Area Denial (A2AD) capabilities

2000s: The U.S. Air Force (I)

- Continued decline in USAF aircraft inventories
  - From 2500 at beginning of decade to 2000 at end of decade
  - Less than 100 long-range bombers at end of decade
- F-22 Raptor fighter introduced (2005)
  - F-117 Nighthawk stealth fighter retired (2008)
- Few new USAF purchases
  - USAF fleet age increased; F-22 buy ended (2009)
  - No new bomber produced since 1997
  - Replacement tanker aircraft acquisition difficulties, scandals and delays
- USAF forward TACAIR, logistics bases in Central Asia
  - Karshi-Khanabad, Uzbekistan (2001-5); Manas, Kyrgyzstan (2001- )
2000s: The U.S. Air Force (II)

- USAF continued to seek airpower solutions to national defense problems
  - Public push-back from USAF Generals Dunlap, Deptula, other USAF thinkers vs. Army-USMC-led COIN doctrine, seen as
    - Too ground-centric, downplaying important COIN contributions of airpower
    - Irrelevant to emerging peer competitor challenges
  - Greatly increased USAF use of Unmanned Aerial Vehicles (UAVs)
    - RQ-4 Global Hawk surveillance UAV deployed
    - MQ-1 Predator armed UAV deployed
    - MQ-9 Reaper armed UAV deployed
    - 1st USAF UAV wing activated (2007)

2000s: The U.S. Air Force (III)

- Continued heavy influence of TACAIR pilots within USAF leadership
  - Gen Norton Schwartz was 1st airlifter to become CSAF (2008)
- Institutionalization within joint thinking of USAF-originated Effects Based Operations (EBO) concepts
  - Many USN commanders bought into the concept
  - Elicited push-back, however, from USMC commanders
- USAF generals finally assigned to command overseas regional joint unified commands
  - Gen Ralston (CDRUSEUCOM, 2000-2003)
  - Gen Fraser (CDRUSSOUTHCOM, from 2009)
2000s: The U.S. Air Force (V)

♦ USAF intellectual institutions evolved
  ♦ Air Force Doctrine Center (AFDC) and Air University College for Aerospace Doctrine, Research and Education (CADRE) merged into Air University LeMay Center for Doctrine Development and Education (2007)
  ♦ Air University Air Force Research Institute (AFRI) established (2008)
  ♦ CSAF Gen Moseley redirected Air Staff “Checkmate” Division to focus on providing him with alternative analyses
  ♦ CSAF Gen Schwartz re-directed “Checkmate” to integrate strategy and operational planning expertise to support USAF component commanders (2009)

2000s: USAF Capstone Documents (I)

♦ Air Force Strategic Plan, 2006-2008 (Oct 2006)
  ♦ USAF strategy for next 2 decades
  ♦ Continued “global vigilance, reach and power” theme
2000s: USAF Capstone Documents (II)

- Operations and Organization (AFDD 2) (2007)
- SECAF Donley and CSAF Gen Schwartz, 2008 Air Force Strategic Plan (Oct 2008)

2000s: USAF Capstone Documents (III)

- CSAF Gen Schwartz, CSAF ’s Vector: The Way Ahead (Jul 2010)
- Securing the High Ground: Agile Combat Air Power: 2010 Combat Air Force Strategic Plan (Sep 2010))
- Also:
  - AFDD 2-3, Irregular Warfare, 1 Aug 2007
2000s: U.S. Air Force Maritime Doctrine, TTP

- USAF updated and published Countersea Operations AFDD 2-1.4 (2005)
  - Published by
    - Commander Navy Warfare Development Command (NWDC)
    - Commander, (USAF) Curtis E. Lemay Center for Doctrine Development & Education

2000s: U.S. Navy Capstone Documents

- Only brief mention of USAF contributions, capabilities, limitations, or dependence on US naval power in most USN capstone strategy, policy and concept documents of the decade
  - But USAF capabilities very well-integrated into Naval Operating Concept for Joint Operations (NOCJO) (2006)
2000s: USN-USAF Staff Relationships (I)

- Counter-insurgency ground wars in Afghanistan and Iraq (2001-2010 and beyond), were dominated by U.S. Army & U.S. Marine Corps ground and air support forces.
- Navy and Air Force found common ground in need to develop and achieve acceptance of:
  - Roles for Navy and Air Force aviation in counter-insurgency (COIN) doctrine and operations
  - Continuing need for a robust modernized strategic nuclear force

2000s: USN-USAF Staff Relationships (II)

- Emerging anti-access capabilities abroad led to measures to improve the viability of USAF TACAIR and carrier aviation
- New look at virtues of USAF long-range bombers
- Multi-service agreement on command relationships for forward Navy Aegis BMD ships (2010)
2000s: USN-USAF Staff Relationships (III)

♦ SECDEF suggested “100-Wing Air Force” to complement “1000-Ship Navy” (2009)
♦ Formal annual USN-USAF Warfighter Talks program ongoing (from c.2000)
♦ CNO ADM Vern Clark created Naval Operations Group (OPNAV Deep Blue) based in part on his perceptions of USAF Air Staff “Checkmate” Division roles (2001)
♦ Close OPNAV Deep Blue - Air Staff Checkmate relations in early, mid-decade

2000s: USN-USAF Staff Relationships (IV)

♦ Retired US Navy Captain James Roche served as Secretary of the Air Force (2001-2005)
♦ Retired USAF General H.T. Johnson served as Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Acting Secretary of the Navy (2001-5)
♦ DoD, Aircraft Investment Plan: Fiscal Years (FY) 2011-2040 (Feb 2010)
  ♦ 1st DoD submission of a department-wide long-range fixed-wing aviation procurement plan
  ♦ USN, USAF, USMC aircraft
2000s: USN-USAF Staff Relationships (V)

♦ "Air-Sea Battle” concept development (2009-11)
  ♦ To address common anti-access /area denial challenges
  ♦ Incubated by Office of the Secretary of Defense (Net Assessment) (OSD(NA)) and non-profit Center for Strategic and Budgetary Assessments (CSBA) think tank (staffed in part by OSD/NA alumni)
  ♦ SECDEF Gates tasker to SECNAV and SECAF
  ♦ Joint USN-USAF working group formed
  ♦ CNO & CSAF approved way ahead (May 2010)
  ♦ Initial classified documentation (2011)
  ♦ No UNCLAS official discussion of substantive contents available (as of Feb 2011)
  ♦ Much press, international speculation
  ♦ Earlier CSBA reports much discussed

2000s: USN-USAF Staff Relationships (VI)

♦ USN-USAF staff discussion issues (2009-10)
  ♦ Stealth and SEAD
  ♦ UAV development, operational responsibilities, and support
    ♦ USAF sought DOD executive agency to rationalize DOD UAV acquisition and ops
    ♦ Both services sought synergies, cost savings, duplication avoidance
  ♦ Intra-theater lift responsibilities
  ♦ Cyberwar responsibilities
  ♦ Nuclear weapons command and control
  ♦ Integrated air & missile defense
  ♦ Base Realignment & Closure Commission (BRAC) mandated joint bases
  ♦ Air-Sea Battle concept
  ♦ Joint Strike Fighter (F-35) development
  ♦ Forward air base and air station infrastructure resiliency and survivability
Continued integration of USN and USAF strike operations, utilizing JFACC and ATO concepts

Joint Operations Enduring Freedom (OEF) and Iraqi Freedom (OIF) achieved real USN-USAF synergies

- Full USN integration in Combined Air Operations Center (CAOC)
- E.g., OEF JFACC was USAF Lt Gen; Deputy JFACC was USN RADM
- More robust Naval and Amphibious Liaison Elements (NALEs)

USN continued to develop & test “JFACC afloat” & sea-based Joint Air Operations Center (JAOC) capabilities

- Joint Pub 3-30 Command and Control for Joint Air Operations (Jan 2010): “The JFACC may be sea-based”
- USAF B-52 Stratofortress, B-1B Lancer and B-2A Spirit strategic bombers comprised nation’s only high-volume sea mining capability
- Modest USN P-3C Orion & F/A18 Hornet/Super Hornet airborne sea mine delivery capability
- No USN surface mine-laying capability
- USN phasing out submarine-launched mobile mines (SLMM) (by 2012)
2000s: USN-USAF Operational Relationships

- Navy temporarily assumed USAF OEF missions when USAF F-15 Eagles grounded (2007)
- USAF units embarked on Navy High Speed Vessel Swift (HSV 2) during USSOUTHCOM Southern Partnership Station ops in Caribbean
- US Navy rescue and salvage ship USNS Grasp (T-ARS 51) recovered two USAF F-15C Eagle fighters from Gulf of Mexico (2008)

2000s: USN-USAF Operational Relationships

- Navy P-3C use of USAF-run Forward Operating Location (FOL) at Manta, Ecuador
  - Until 2009
- USAF support for USN Ballistic Missile Defense (BMD) system satellite shoot-down (2008)
  - USAF provided satellite tracking data to USN shooters
- Continued Navy dependence on USAF for E-3 Sentry AWACS aircraft support
- Continued USN Military Sealift Command (MSC) afloat forward prepositioning of USAF munitions
2000s: Exercise and Training Relationships (I)

- Increased joint USN-USAF exercises, e.g.,
    - USN F/A-18s, USAF B-52H with laser guided weapons destroyed targets at sea in the Pacific Ocean. USAF B-52 sank decommissioned USN LST
    - Supported by USAF E-8C JSTARS aircraft
  - RIMPAC 2010 (Jul 2010)
    - USAF B-52 GBU-10 precision guided munitions, USN and allied missiles and gunnery sank decommissioned USN LPH
  - Invincible Spirit (Jul 2010)
    - Off Korea, after Korean warship sinking
    - USN CVN/CVW, USAF F-22s

2000s: Exercise and Training Relationships (II)

- Other joint USN-USAF exercises, e.g.,
  - Valiant Shield
  - Vigilant Shield (2010)
    - USNORTHCOM/NORAD
    - Including 1st Air Forces Northern (AFNORTH) Naval Liaison Element (NALE)
  - US Northern Command Northern Edge exercises
  - USAF Special Tactics Squadron (STS) exercised rescue ops from ballistic missile submarine USS Alabama (SSBN-731), acting as surrogate cruise missile submarine (SSGN) (2005)
  - Continued Navy-USAF pilot exchanges: Squadron and flight instructor duty and test pilot schools, war college exchanges
2000s: Exercise and Training Relationships (III)

- Increased information, personnel and aircraft exchanges between Naval Strike and Air Warfare Center (NSAWC) Naval Air Station (Fallon NV) and Air Force Weapons School (Nellis AFB NV)
- Continued joint USN-USAF education and training consolidation
  - Eglin AFB Florida ranges replaced NAS Roosevelt Roads & Vieques for USN strike training
  - Base Realignment and Closure Commission (BRAC) 2005 report mandated Joint Strike Fighter (F-35) integrated training center be established at Eglin AFB
- But USN VT-4 deactivated at Pensacola (2010)
  - USAF stood up new 479th Flying Training Group at Pensacola to conduct its own officer training

2000s: USAF Maritime Exercise

  - 3-plane B-52 flight surveillance exercise over North Atlantic, targeting USNS Maritime Prepositioning Ship (MPS)
  - Major USAF public affairs campaign
  - Deliberately reminiscent of US Army Air Corps 3-plane B-17 flight surveillance exercise in North Atlantic targeting Italian liner Rex (1938)
- Viewed in US Navy (and by some others) as a parochial public relations stunt
- Viewed by many in USAF as a way to revive USAF counter-sea warfare capabilities, to find and attack ships at sea
2000s: USN-USAF TACAIR Relationships

- Generally smooth USN-USAF tactical air operational cooperation and coordination throughout the decade
  - Operation Enduring Freedom (OEF) over Afghanistan (from 2001)
  - Operation Iraqi Freedom (OIF) over Iraq (from 2003)

2000s: Electronic Warfare Relationships (I)

- USN, USMC EA-6B Prowler continued as sole US national tactical electronic attack capability
  - Supported Air Expeditionary Forces (AEFs) as well as USN, USMC units
  - USAF continued to provide some crews
- USN transitioning from EA-6B Prowler to EA-18G Growler EW aircraft
2000s: Electronic Warfare Relationships (II)

  - USAF of 2010-20 will not be as stealthy as USAF planners envisioned in early 1990s
  - Composition: ½ USAF; ½ USN-USMC
  - Command to rotate among USAF, USN, USMC

2000s: Strategic Nuclear Relationships

- SECDEF Gates criticized USAF leaders re: serious nuclear systems security lapses (2008)
  - CONUS, Taiwan weapons/components incidents
  - SECAF, CSAF fired
- SECDEF appointed USN ADM Donald to investigate USAF nuclear weapons security lapses (2008)
- USAF activated Global Strike Command (2009)
  - Strategic Air Command (SAC) with a new name
  - Re-united USAF bomber and ICBM forces in one nuclear-weapons-focused command
2000s: Airlift Relationships

- Modernization of USN Operational Support Aircraft (OSA) fleet
  - Introduction of C-40A (modified Boeing 737) (2001)
  - USAF bought similar aircraft (C-40B, C-40C)
- Continued USN dependence on USAF for
  - Long-haul airlift support of critical parts, supplies, personnel
- Continued CDR USTRANSCOM integration of sealift and airlift
  - E.g., US Army Stryker Brigade gear sealifted from Tacoma to Diego Garcia, then airlifted to Afghanistan (2009)

2000s: Aerial Refueling Relationships

- Continued USN carrier aviation dependence on USAF tankers
  - Short-legged USN F/A-18C/D Hornet force
  - Longer-legged USN F/A-18E/F Super Hornets with aerial refueling system (ARS) (“buddy stores”) tanker capability introduced (from 2001)
  - Long-legged USN F-14 Tomcats retired (by 2006)
  - Extended ranges of OEF and OIF targets
  - USN S-3B Viking with tanker capability retired (by 2009)
- Continued disgruntlement by some naval aviators at dependence on USAF tanking
2000s: Space Relationships

- Continued high USN use of USAF space systems
- Continued modest USN funding of space systems
- SECDEF Rumsfeld designated USAF as DOD executive agent for space issues (2001)
  - Space policy and procurement authority to OSD (2007)
- USN procurement agent for narrowband satellites
  - USN responsible for UHF/FO SATCOM system control and development of next-generation UHF Mobile User Objective System (MUOS) program
- On DOD direction, USN turned over operation of aging ground-based space surveillance system (NAVSPASUR) “space fence” and Alternate Space Control Center (ASCC) to USAF (2004)

2000s: USN-USAF Systems Relationships (I)

- USN and USAF phased in jointly-developed T-6B Texan II as common primary trainer aircraft
- Cobra Judy Replacement (CJR) ballistic missile-tracking radar program transferred from USAF to USN (2002)
- New USN missile range instrumentation ship USNS Howard O. Lorenzen (T-AGM 23) christened. MSC to operate as CJR radar platform to support USAF missile tracking programs (Jun 2010)
2000s: USN-USAF Systems Relationships (II)

- USN Broad Area Maritime Surveillance Unmanned Aerial System (BAMS UAS) program derived from USAF RQ-4 unmanned ISR Global Hawk aircraft
  - USN chose USAF-developed Global Hawk as BAMS UAS (2008)
  - CNO-CSAF MOA maximizing commonalities, interoperability, joint efficiencies (Jun 2010)
  - USN, USAF to buy common ground control stations
  - USAF Global Hawk first flew in 1998
  - USN BAMS UAS to operate in 2015
- USAF support of Navy Unmanned Carrier-Based Surveillance and Strike System (UCLASS) program
- Plans for Navy to transfer 4 MQ-9 Reaper “Saber Focus” UAVs to USAF in 2011 (2010)

2000s: USN-USAF Systems Relationships (III)

- USN, USAF, USMC continued co-development of F-35 Joint Strike Fighter (JSF) variants
  - SECDEF Gates replaced USMC MajGen Program Executive Officer (PEO) with USN VADM, to restructure joint program due to troubled performance record (2010)
- Joint GBU Laser-Guided Bomb (LGB) development; USAF lead
- Joint Precision Approach and Landing System (JPALS) development; Navy lead
- USN, USAF merged Joint Tactical Radio System (JTRS) procurement programs
2000s: USN-USAF Systems Relationships (IV)

- USN-USAF Service Life Extension Program (SLEP) modifications on Navy E-6B Mercury “TACAMO” strategic command & control aircraft (2010)
- Low-level USN and USAF interest in long-range conventional ballistic missile development (for “prompt global strike”)
  - Congress refused to fund Navy program; mandated joint (largely USAF-US Army) program (2008)

2000s: USN-USAF Systems Relationships (V)

- USN-USAF discussions re: light-attack Irregular Warfare aircraft programs cooperation (2009-10)
- But
  - USN did not buy USAF AGM-158 Joint Air-to-Surface Standoff Missile (JASSM); preferred the Stand-off Land Attack Missile –Extended Response (SLAM-ER)
  - USAF did not buy USN AGM-154B Joint Standoff Weapon (JSOW-B); whereupon USN terminated the program
  - Joint USN-USAF Unmanned Combat Aircraft System (J-UCAS) development ended; became Navy program (N-UCAS) (2006)
2000s: USN-USAF Basing Relationships

- Base Realignment and Closure Commission (BRAC) mandated joint bases
  - Managed by USN
    - Naval Station (NAVSTA) Pearl and Hickham Air Force Base (AFB)
    - Naval Base Guam and Andersen AFB
    - Naval Annex Anacostia and Bolling AFB
  - Managed by USAF
    - Naval Air Facility (NAF) Washington and Andrews AFB
    - Naval Weapons Station (NAVWPNSTA) CHASN and Charleston AFB
    - Naval Air Engineering Station (NAES) Lakehurst and McGuire AFB
  - Services are making this happen, but the path isn’t always smooth

2000s: USN-US Army relations (I)

- USN spent much of the decade concerned it had been marginalized in the eyes of successive administrations & the American public, due to Pentagon focus on & heavy publicity regarding 2 ground wars in Southwest Asia, for which Army was central, no matter how much support Navy provided (which was considerable)

- The Army recovered from debacles in Iraq (2004-6); became energized with its successes in transforming itself into a capable COIN force & turning around two losing wars, as it saw them

- By 2010, however, American people & their government appeared to wish to leave irregular Southwest Asia wars behind, & refocus on interstate power relationships in East Asia, requiring more Navy, less Army. This roiled the Army.
2000s: USN-US Army relations (II)

- Army views and experience dominated by continuous heavy ground war engagement in Afghanistan & Iraq (since 2001)
  - Increasingly battle-hardened
  - Active-Reserve-Guard mix better integrated than previously
- Decades-old central US Army premise -- that heavy combat forces will provide decisive defeat – called into question in Operation Iraqi Freedom (OIF) (2004-6)
- Army had been unprepared to conduct effective Phase IV, irregular, COIN, hybrid warfare, non-combat ops
- Changes in Korea as well, especially command relationships, force deployment strategy

2000s: USN-US Army relations (III)

- Multi-media internal & external debates on Army strategy, ops, tactics, policy, doctrine, force structure
  - CSA GEN Shinseki retired amidst Army-Administration policy differences (2003)
  - “Revolt of the Generals” (Public retiree dissent vs. SECDEF Rumsfeld policies, esp. in Iraq) (2006)
  - Field grade officer articles
  - Company grade officer blogs; on-line Small Wars Journal
- Upshot: By 2006, major cultural transformation underway in US Army: Heavy re-focus on Phase IV, irregular, COIN, hybrid warfare, non-combat ops
- Vocal internal Army minority opposed to prominence of COIN in Army concepts & doctrine
  - COL Gian Gentile USA articles & blogs (from 2007)
Revised US Army concepts & doctrine

- 2008 edition gave equal weight to stability, civil support & shaping; and offensive & defensive ops & battles
- 2011 Change 1 added hybrid threats discussion, etc.

FM 3-24/ MCWP 3-33.5 Counterinsurgency (Dec 2006)
- Contents, authors, development process attracted global publicity

TRADOC Pam 525-3-1, The Army Operating Concept for Operational Maneuver 2015-2024 (Oct 2006)

Revised US Army concepts & doctrine (continued)

- OPNAV invited to comment on draft

TRADOC Pam 525-3-1, The United States Army Operating Concept: 2016-2028 (Aug 2010) (Superseded 2006 ed.)

Thoughtful analysis of Army “way of war”
2000s: USN-US Army relations (VI)

- Army acquired some attributes of a rotational, expeditionary, forward-deployed force, similar to Navy & USMC
  - Less emphasis on mobilization & heavy surge from garrisons
- Some similarity in Army to internal USN debates re: warfighting vs. forward presence, MSO, HA/DR ops
  - But intensity & significance of internal Navy policy debates much less than Army experience
- Increasing awareness of rising potential threats to US sealift, afloat prepositioning & sea control in Western Pacific
  - Army (& others, including some in Navy) had taken Navy sea control & safe trans-oceanic sealift & prepositioning for granted since end of Cold War

2000s: USN-US Army relations (VII)

- Doctrine & concept development, validation, dissemination still of central importance to US Army operations & culture
  - (Unlike the Navy)
- US Army acquired a public reputation for thoughtfulness re: conduct of war
  - Largely due to press focus on ground wars & press involvement & subsequent reporting on creation of COIN field manual
  - Exacerbated by journalist Tom Ricks articles & blogs, extolling Army while damning alleged dearth of Navy thought (bizarre)
2000s: USN-US Army relations (VIII)

- Big growth in Army TOA (OIF, OEF expenses)
  - Army TOA exceeded DON TOA for 1st time since Vietnam War
- Big growth in active Army end strength
  - 65K more soldiers (to 547,000) by 2012 (2007)
  - 22K more temporary increase of 22K (2009)
  - (USN active end strength continued to drop)
- Army converting from division-based to modular, brigade-based force

2000s: USN-US Army relations (IX)

- SECDEFs Rumsfeld & Gates cancelled all Army major next-generation acquisition programs
  - Crusader howitzer (canxed 2002); Comanche helicopter (canxed 2004); Future Combat Systems (sensors & vehicles) (initiated 2003, canxed 2009)
- Freed up resources for Army to expand & modernize primary combat vehicles & supporting capabilities
  - Army developed, bought, fielded
    - Over 15,000 Mine-Resistant Ambush-Protected trucks (MRAPs) (from 2007)
  - Army modernized
    - Over 1000 Abrams main battle tanks
    - Over 4000 Bradley fighting vehicles
- Army bought
  - Thousands of HUMVEES, other vehicles, small arms
2000s: USN-US Army relations (X)

♦ Operation IRAQI FREEDOM (OIF) (2003-10)
  ♦ USN in support of Army
    ♦ Sea-based close air support
    ♦ Army assigned Ground Liaison Officers to carriers
    ♦ MSC sealift & prepositioning ship utilization
    ♦ Individual Augmentees (IAs) to provide combat support, combat service support to Army units in Iraq (& Afghanistan)
    ♦ NECC port security & other unit deployments, etc.
    ♦ Seabee construction
    ♦ Joint Army-Navy HSV & TSV ops, crewing
    ♦ Patriot-Aegis early warning coordination
    ♦ USN EW counter-IED etc. in-country specialist support & CONUS training of Army personnel

2000s: USN-US Army relations (XI)

♦ Army in support of USN strategic sealift
  ♦ Puerto Rico ANG 92nd Separate Infantry Brigade provided security detachments on USN sealift ships during OIF (2003-4)
    ♦ Operation GUARDIAN MARINER
  ♦ Relieved by USN force protection forces (2004)

♦ US Army training for Navy sailors
  ♦ Army instructors at Fort Jackson SC provides ground combat training to Navy Individual Augmentees (IAs) assigned in support of Army in Iraq & Afghanistan
2000s: USN-US Army relations (XII)

- Riverine forces & operations
  - US Army Engineers riverine forces in Iraq (2003-)
  - 101st Airborne Division stood up riverine force on Euphrates River in Iraq (2008)
  - NECC riverine forces supported Army operations in Iraq (2009-10)
  - New USN riverine forces used USA training facilities
- JTF HOA Army-Navy Civil Affairs unit coordination & cooperation

2000s: USN-US Army relations (XIII)

- Army helo operations from Navy ships now routine
  - Operation ENDURING FREEDOM
    - US Army SOF troops, helos operated off CV USS Kitty Hawk vs. Afghanistan targets (2001)
    - JTF Katrina (2005)
      - Army helos operated off USN CVN USS Harry S. Truman
  - Continued routine exercises certifying Army helos to land on USN ships
    - Army helos landed on Army USAV Joint Venture X1 off Korea (2004)
    - Deadly Army-Navy training accident off VACAPES (2009)
  - New Joint Pub 3-04, Joint Shipboard Helicopter Operations (Sep 2008)
2000s: USN-US Army relations (XIV)

- USN-US Army Joint High Speed Vessel (JHSV) development & procurement
  - Army & Navy jointly leased Australian catamaran Joint Venture (HSV-X1) (2001-5)
  - Army leased USAV Spearhead (TSV-X1) (2002-5)
  - Joint Army-Navy program to build Joint High Speed Vessels (JHSVs) (2008)
    - 5 for Navy; 5 for Army.
    - NAVSEA PEO Ships management.
    - Initial construction began (2010)
    - Joint discussions on turning entire fleet over to Navy (Dec 2010)

2000s: USN-US Army relations (XV)

- Continued Army requirements for Navy sealift and afloat prepositioning support
  - Continued USN MSC forward afloat prepositioning of US Army equipment
- Army interest in sea basing concepts, hardware
  - Army co-signed Army-Navy-USMC MOU on Concept of Employment for Current Seabasing Capabilities: Integrating Seabasing Capabilities into Exercises and Experiments (Jun 2010)
- Continued delivery of US Army Logistic Support Vessels (LSV) for theater-level tactical sealift
- Army-Navy discussions on Army turning all its watercraft over to Navy (Nov-Dec 2010)
  - Army initiative; Navy demurred
2000s: USN-US Army relations (XVI)

- USN adopted Army Foreign Area Officer (FAO) concepts, practices
- Army Counter Rocket, Artillery & Mortar (C-RAM) system for Iraqi ops adapted from USN Phalanx CIWS
- USN SSN, SSGNs deployed Army hand-launched Buster surveillance unmanned aerial vehicles (UAVs)
- USN Seabees helped Army Corps of Engineers build Army air defense missile battery at Kadena AFB Okinawa (2006)
- New BRAC-driven joint Army-Navy base
  - Joint Expeditionary Base Little Creek-Fort Story (2009)
    - Navy commander; Army deputy commander

2000s: USN-US Army relations (XVII)

Eric Smith
US Naval Institute Proceedings
April 2010
2010 Army-Navy Warfighter talks topics

- Army JHSV & Army watercraft program
- Capability & capacity in Iraq & Afghanistan
- Integrated air & missile defense
- Air-Sea Battle
- Army pre-positioned stocks & sealift
- Electronic & cyber warfare

The Army in 2010

- Proud, battle-hardened, experienced, well-equipped
- Increasingly adaptable, agile & expeditionary
- Refocused on COIN, irregular, hybrid warfare
- Aware of low American public support for Iraqi & Afghan war costs, & Administration plans to pull all US combat troops from Iraq by 2011 and Afghanistan by 2014
- Aware of US foreign policy refocus on East Asia, & little American support for ground combat there
- Resigned to but fearful of major budget cuts
- Debating proper future internal Army balance between heavy combat & irregular forces: Training, doctrine, equipment, etc.
- Indignant at being left out of Navy-Air Force-Marine Corps planning for Air-Sea Battle operational concept
Multilateral naval operations the norm

USN focus: Coordinating & integrating coalition capabilities in real world regional contingencies

Solutions to coalition classified comms & data link interoperability issues

9/11 & Global war on terrorism (GWOT) sparked:
- Push for wider exchange of UNCLAS data

Reminder:
- The 2010-2011 data just recounted in the Postscript did not influence the drafting of the capstone documents analyzed earlier in this study.
- The data is provided here only to give added perspective, in hindsight, to the 2001-2010 decade.
